

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

It rained nearly all day on Saturday, April 1st.

C. W. Slack, John Treasurer and R. M. Smith attended the Hickernut sale in Union county on Friday.

Mrs. James Foust is at the home of a brother, John Graden, at Smulton, where she will remain for two weeks.

Representative Haines is interesting himself in legislation permitting the State Highway Department to build roads on Penn State Campus.

Jesse Huey and family, of Spring Mills, it is reported, will occupy the dwelling house on the Igen farm, immediately south of the borough line.

The marriage of Charles Edwin Jordan of Bellefonte and Miss Laura-belle McCormick will take place in the Sprucetown Methodist church, Friday evening.

Mrs. Robert Goodhart of Altoona has been assisting in caring for Mrs. F. V. Goodhart who has been confined to bed from grip for two weeks. Her condition on some days is very fair and on others quite the contrary.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Jamison on Sunday were Mrs. Olin Jamison, mother of the former, accompanied by her sons, Ray and Rufus Jamison. The latter is conducting the farming operations on the Jamison farm near Mifflinburg.

The personal property of the late Mrs. Myra Winegardner will be sold at public sale at the home of Edwin Glenn, near Lemont, on Saturday afternoon. The furniture and other articles to be offered are all very desirable. Sale will begin at 1:00 p. m.

A number of members of the local organization of Eastern Star attended the installation of officers in the Bellefonte lodge on Friday evening. The installing officer was Daisy Henderson, Past Grand Matron. Some of the State officers were present.

A trip to the National capital was made on Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fetterolf, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Frank, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bradford, Dr. and Mrs. H. R. White, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Brooks with the idea of enjoying the beauty and fragrance of the Japanese cherry blossoms then in full bloom.

Mrs. Guy W. Jacobs and daughters, Miss Frances, a student in William & Mary College, Virginia, and Miss Rose Anne, will come from Steubenville, Ohio, to the Jacobs home in Centre Hall, and Mr. Jacobs will make a stop-over here from a business trip to New York City, to arrive Saturday, for Easter Sunday.

The tractor on the farm is becoming more popular this year than ever, although horse power is falling in price. Tractors, equipped with rubber, were sold recently by D. W. Bradford, McCormick-Deering salesman, to Messrs. Wm. R. Stoner, C. Gilbert Rimmey, William Glasgow, Geo. Fetterolf and Henry Zerby, all of near Centre Hall.

John H. Puff has been confined to his home and for much of the time to bed during the past ten days, with a case of grip and complications bordering on pneumonia. Mr. Puff for a number of years has been the general utility man in Centre Hall, and is the one person in the borough who knows many things not on record that ought to be.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wert entertained Rev. and Mrs. Kline and son of Shrewsbury at the Wert homestead west of Tusseyville, on Wednesday of last week. On Sunday guests at the same home were Misses Brubaker, Pauline Crowe, Mildred Elder and Esther Kaufman, all of Loyville, and Marion Taylor and Guy Rice of Port Royal, all employes at the Tressler Orphans' Home, where Mr. Wert was engaged prior to taking up farming.

W. E. Burkholder, a Phillipsburg Maytag electric washer salesman, was relieved of $110 by Morris Powell, formerly of Wilkes-Barre. The money was stolen after work hours, on March 15. Powell was sentenced to serve 60 days in the Centre county court by Judge Walker, whom he told that after taking the money he went to Lock Haven, got drunk and was "robbed" of the money, consequently was unable to make restitution. Mr. Burkholder, the Phillipsburg dealer, is a brother of M. A. Burkholder of near Centre Hall.

E. Dale Fisher, successful Lewis-town realtor, who has consummated various successful real estate deals in Centre county lately, knows the value of advertising. Unlike many short-sighted business men, he does not consider advertising a miracle-working operation, a pull-out-of-the-hat proposition. Rather, he looks upon it somewhat as having the force of a hard stone—slowly but surely getting the job done. Advertising is cumulative in its effect. Mr. Fisher talks our language on advertising, and it was a pleasure to have had a short chat with him in our office a few days ago.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The O'Connor bill would start the system Jan. 1, 1940.

Wednesday was a beautiful spring day. The temperature during the morning was brisk.

The Bartholomew family is expecting as Easter guests, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reesman, who have planned to reach here this (Thursday) afternoon.

U. S. tire salesmen in this region were called together on Tuesday in Altoona. Representatives from the valley to attend were J. S. Boozer, R. S. Brooks and Victor Stover, the latter of Aaronsburg.

Dodge and Plymouth trucks sold recently by the R. S. Hagan agency include a 1 1-2 ton Dodge to Richard Tate; 1-2-ton pick-up Dodge to Harry Wolf, and a Plymouth sedan delivery to Mrs. Vera Meyer.

Prof. J. F. Wetzel contemplates moving from the Bender property, where he has lived for several years, to the E. W. Miller (former Strohm) home, recently vacated by Kenneth Brown. The Bender property is being offered for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heck and daughter of Jersey Shore, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wolfe and brand new baby of Howard, visited the ladies' mother, Mrs. Della Reiber, Sunday. Mr. Ritter accompanied the former couple from Jersey Shore.

Centre Hall borough has been offered a project to relay water pipes from Laurel Spring to the reservoir and from the reservoir through the borough to the south line. The proposition up to this time has not been considered by the august body.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher on Wednesday left by Greyhound bus for Wilkesburg where they will be over the Easter with Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Corman. The Cormans will be joined by the Fishers on a short trip east or south, planned by the minister and his wife.

Mrs. Phillip Bradford will again give an egg hunt to a limited number of invited children in the immediate vicinity of her home on Easter morning. The eggs, all colored and decorated, will be secreted on the Bradford lawn and flower garden to be discovered by the children.

Beverly Vonada, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Vonada who recently moved to near Howard, is continuing her eighth grade school work here and will do so to the end of the term. She is living with Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Coldron, former next-door neighbors of the Vonada family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bradford of town will accompany their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bauer of Huntingdon on a week-end motor trip to Pittsburgh. They will visit with Mr. Bauer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Bauer, and Mr. Bradford's sister-in-law, Mrs. Chas. Bradford.

4-H CLUB MEETS
Monday evening the 4-H club of Centre Hall met in the high school at 7:30 o'clock. The meeting was called to order by Inez Luse, vice-president of the club. After singing "America" the minutes of the last meeting were read.

Mr. Tate showed five reels of pictures. Two of the reels were about how some of the things are done in England. The other three were how to take care of 4-H pigs. Some of the prize winners and the judging of pigs at State College were also shown.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday May 2, at 7:30, in the high school building.—Secretary.

HELP STOMACH DIGEST FOOD
Without Laxatives—and You'll Eat Everything from Soup to Nuts
The stomach should digest two pounds of food daily. When you eat heavy, greasy, coarse or rich foods or when you are nervous, hurried or chew poorly—your stomach often fails to do its job. Your food doesn't digest and you have gas, heartburn, nausea, pain or sour stomach. You feel sour, bloated and just all over. Doctors say never take a laxative for stomach pain. It is dangerous and foolish. It takes those little black tablets called Bell-ons for indigestion to make the excess stomach acids harmless, relieve distress in no time and put you back on your feet. Bell-on is so quick it is amazing and one 25c package proves it. Ask for Bell-on for indigestion.

Laughing Around the World
With IRVIN S. COBB

Not At All Singular
By IRVIN S. COBB

AN American journalist in poor health spent the summer of 1910 at a resort in Southern France. The proprietor was an English woman, and all of the other guests were English, too. They were friendly and kind to the invalid—all excepting one very austere and haughty lady.

On his first day as a guest at the house he heard this lady say to the landlady:

"I distinctly understood that you did not admit Americans as lodgers here, and I wish to know why you have broken the rule."

The other woman explained that the stranger had come with good references and that he seemed a quiet, well-mannered person who hadn't offered to scalp anybody and who knew how to eat with knife and fork. Nevertheless the complaining matron was not at all pleased.

She took frequent opportunity of saying unkind things about the States and those who lived in the States. The sick American maintained a polite silence. Finally one day at the dinner table she addressed him with direct reference to a certain ghastly murder case which even after the lapse of many years will be remembered by most readers today.

"What do you Yankees think of your fellow-Yankoe, Doctor Crippen?" she inquired.

"We think he's crazy," said the American.

"How singular!" said the lady, arching her eyebrows.

"Not at all," said the American. "He must have been crazy to kill an American woman in order to marry an English one."
