

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mrs. William Noble and son Richard of Lewistown were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James I. Fetter on Monday.

Glenn Weaver, employed by G. H. Stover, the grain, feed and fuel dealer set up housekeeping recently in one of the Grove apartments.

Rev. and Mrs. W. K. Hosterman attended the meeting of the Williamsport Ministerium in the State College church on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hockenbrought and son visited at the Lutheran parsonage over Easter. Mrs. Hockenbrought is a sister of Mrs. Wagner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Weaver and daughter, Wilma, employed on the Penna. Cave farm, attended the funeral of Mrs. Weaver's father, Mr. Waite, in Buffalo, N. Y.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Durst over the week-end were Robert and Betty Swartz, nephew and niece, of Ivyland, and Francis Morgan of Grove City. The Bucks county young people motored here.

Charles A. Lester, one of Potter township's active farmers, was a caller on Monday. Mr. Lester was all ready to begin farm work, but found the soil in his fields too wet for turning at the beginning of this week.

Richard Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ross of near town, teaching in the University of West Virginia and at the same time taking advanced work in the Morgantown institution, was at his home over the week-end.

E. A. Tyson, principal of the Millheim grade schools, was threatened during last week with an attack of appendicitis and was obliged to turn over his school duties for a few days to W. N. Duck, a fifth grade instructor.

The Coldron cafe in the Bartholomew building was much improved by repainting and covering the floor with linoleum over which rubber runners were laid. The cafe had an unusual run of customers on Easter Sunday.

Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Lansberry on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Robert I. Smith, Albert and Gerald Smith of town, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dolley of Bellefonte.

E. K. Newton, former operator on the Airways beacon light on Round Top, north of Woodward, has been called to Washington, D. C., in the capacity of telegraph operator in the Department of State. The position is in the civil service classification.

Miss A. Irene Zerby, a Penn State graduate, and now home economics worker in Clearfield county, was at the home of her father, J. W. Zerby, and sister, Mrs. R. S. Hagan, over the Easter vacation. Miss Zerby's office is in the town of Clearfield.

The news was received by relatives that Guy Fredericks, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Fredericks of Fredericksburg, Va., was seriously injured when he collided with an automobile while riding a bicycle. Mrs. Fredericks was formerly Miss Esther Foreman of Centre Hall.

Week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. Charles McClellan in Millheim were Harry McClellan of Centre Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Brown Decker and two sons of Reedsville, Mrs. Robert McClellan of Linden Hall; Mrs. Sabilla Kryder of Centre Hall and Herbert Cummings of Spring Mills.

Raymond Walker, who retired from farm life and located in Centre Hall, found employment at the Penn State dairy barn. Mr. Walker developed a fine herd of Guernsey cattle while engaged in farming near town, and is undoubtedly well fitted to fill the place he now holds.

Walter S. Cowing, State National Youth Administration director, announces that W. I. Scott, NYA supervisor for Centre county, will attend a conference today (Thursday) and Friday in Harrisburg, with a view of conferring concerning the possibility of expanding the NYA program locally.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Biehl and young daughter, Lynn Audrey, of Ephrata, were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rudy of near town. Mrs. Biehl being a niece of the couple. Both Mr. and Mrs. Biehl the latter formerly Hazel Potter, are employed in a hosiery mill in the Lancaster town named.

Robert Walker, living in one of the Odenkirk apartments, is employed at the Kerlin hatchery and poultry farm, as is also Jack Bradford, recently married and living in a part of the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Bradford. Robert Wetzell is also a recent employe taken on by the Kerlin plant. This gives the young married men a real break.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Keller and young daughter, Janet Lee, of Laurel, Delaware and Mr. and Mrs. Clay W. Reesman of Camden, New Jersey, were in Centre Hall for the Easter vacation. Both gentlemen are former boys of town who are making records for themselves, the former as an educator and the latter as a Camden Republican politician now holding a fat Camden City office.

Jean Musser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Musser, east of Centre Hall, has been a patient in the Eye and Ear hospital, Pittsburgh, since Wednesday of last week. Until yesterday (Wednesday) morning no decision had been made by the surgeons as to whether or not an operation would be resorted to for the eye trouble the young girl had been afflicted with for a year or more, but that decision was due on that day. Miss Jean, a student in Gregg Township Vocational school, was taken to the hospital by her father who returned home the same day. On Monday she was visited by her grandmother, Mrs. Carrie Musser.

Miss Ruth Reish of State College was a week-end guest of Miss Anna Homan.

A Townsend meeting will be held in the I. O. O. F. hall on Friday evening.

The Alumni Association of Centre Hall-Potter high school will hold a dance, round and square, on May 5.

The annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church opened its sessions in York on Wednesday.

Wednesday's weather was no improvement over that prior in April—a snow storm set in at 10:00 a. m.

Wilbur Stover was again named manager of the Centre Hall baseball club, one of the Tri-Valley clubs.

Mrs. Clara Liester was ill over the week-end at her home in Centre Hall. She suffered a gall bladder attack to which she is subject.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Ennist of Yeagertown were guests on Easter of Mrs. Ennist's brother, William B. Hanna, in Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan S. Daup, son William, Daniel Daup, Sr., and Miss Ida Frazier were dinner guests at the Frazier home along Sinking Creek on Sunday.

The Young Men's and Young Women's classes in the Union Sunday school at Tusseyville were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wert, on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Godshall and two children were week-end guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Margaret Godshall, in town. Mr. Godshall is supervisor of Agriculture in a high school at Latrobe.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Durst on Sunday entertained the latter's sister, Mrs. Mollie Ishler of State College, and her daughter, Mrs. (Prof.) Oscar Sherman, and granddaughter and grandson, Connie and Jack, of Lemasters, Franklin county.

G. W. Shank of Howard was hit while walking on the road at the McCoy dam near Bellefonte on Saturday night, resulting in a compound fracture to the left arm. The truck which hit him was operated by Willard Noll of Milesburg.

Miss Helen Odenkirk was discharged from the Centre County hospital on Wednesday, following an appendectomy on Monday of last week. She is a daughter of Mrs. W. A. Odenkirk and is employed in the business office of the Bell Telephone Company, Bellefonte.

Mrs. Paul S. Hironimus of Bellefonte, R. D. 2, is improving nicely after a gall stone operation in the Centre County hospital. She has been in the hospital for a period of five weeks. Mr. Hironimus and family prior to moving onto a farm lived in Centre Hall.

A dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Heckman on Sunday, included Mrs. Ida Rossman, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Homan, Miss Miriam Homan, Miss Dorothy McMichaels, all of town, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lingle and daughter, Miss Leona Lingle, of Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Zettle and children, Richard, Dorothy, James and Ellie, of Johnstown; Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Houts and daughter, Freda Jane, of Lemont, were guests on Sunday at the E. E. Zettle home. Mr. Zettle and family also visited Mr. and Mrs. George Bloom, at Lemont, parents of Mrs. Zettle.

An evening dinner of chicken and waffles was served by Mrs. Harry Cummings at the Cummings farm home, a short distance west of Centre Hill on Easter Sunday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Garbrick, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wasson and Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Lester, brother-in-law from long experience just how to prepare these dishes for this particular group.

FOR SALE—Unused furnishings for Locust Grove Ev. church, Saturday, April 15, at 2:15 o'clock: kerosene bracket lamps, large chandelier, 2 Aladdin lamps, church organ, and other unused church furnishings.—The Trustees, J. B. Ripka, Secretary.

THIS WEEK'S SPECIAL!

FOOD SAVER COVERS ONLY 21¢
Keep your food fresh and sanitary. A colorful 6 piece Pure Oil Silk cover set and Plutium holder. Dainty red-grape pattern. 6 piece set...

COLORFUL KITCHENWARE

CAST IRON CHICKEN FRYER 98c	VISVAC COFFEE MAKER $1.59
Self basting cover. Smooth inside and out. 10 1/2 in. diameter.	Full 8-cup size. Heat resisting glass containers—has quick action patented filtering device.
Combination CUP SAVERS $1.10	STEEL OVAL WASTE BASKET 29c
Practical cake cabinet with tray and pie compartment. Made of tin coated steel, in 3 colors.	12 qt. Zonia design basket. Lithographed in a variety of natural colors. 11 1/2 in. high, 8 1/2 in. diameter.
Range Set, 3-pc. set. $0.45
Watering Pot, qt. size. .79
Medicine Cabinet, 11 x 16 x 4 in. $1.19
Aluminum Covered Saucepan, 4 qt. .79
Aluminum Covered Kettle, 6 qt. 1.09

HOSTERMAN & STOVER CO.
The Department Hardware Store
Phone 11-II-2
MILLHEIM

REBERSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weber moved from Smulton into the Clayton Bunting home.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Zeigler and daughter from McAllisterville and Miss Anna Zeigler from State College spent Sunday with their parents.

Paul Zeigler wife and infant daughter of Port Matilda spent their Easter with relatives here.

Fred Whitehill of Lemont visited his wife at the home of her father, Harry Zeigler, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rachau and son Larry of Milesburg were Sunday guests at the Mrs. Edith Gentzel home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wagner of Lewistown spent Sunday with Mrs. Wagner's mother, Mrs. M. R. Moyer, who had been ill the past week.

LaVand Bierly and Margaret Kane were Easter guests at the Kane home in Kingston.

John Diehl of State College called on friends on Sunday.

Mrs. Zeigler of Spring Mills spent part of Easter Sunday at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Emma Corman.

Prof. Harry Weaver and family of New Kensington visited the C. J. Weavers (Sr.) parents of Mr. Weaver, during the Easter vacation.

Charles Heller brought his mother from Canton, Ohio, where she had spent the winter months, to her home here.

Mrs. Helen Shultz, Mrs. Ed. Wolf, Mrs. Gail Weaver and Mildred Wolf were shopping in Lock Haven the past week.

J. E. Gulsewite will begin work as chief mechanic in the Highway Garage in Bellefonte on Tuesday.

With the sale of the Oak Hall flouring mill to Ray C. Noll of Pleasant Gap, Clayton Eiters, who owned the mill for forty years, retires. He began milling fifty-five years ago under John A. Rupp, then operating the Thompson mill between State College and Lemont.

E. Kieffer Troutman, 83, former Union county jury commissioner and member of the county Democratic committee, died during last week.

FOR INSURANCE SEE C. D. Bartholomew Estate
Helen Bartholomew, Mgr.
CENTRE HALL, PA.

POTTERS MILLS

Miss Fannie Hutchinson of State College visited over the week-end at the home of her friend, Miss Caroline McClaskey.

E. B. Palmer was brought home from the Centre County hospital on Tuesday but is still confined to bed.

Russel Copenhaver, wife and daughter of Bellefonte; Chal. Yroman and Miss Amelia Copenhaver of Phillipsburg spent Sunday at the H. E. Foust home.

Miss Verna Auman, who is employed at Milroy, visited over the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Auman.

Those who took dinner Sunday at the G. H. McCormick home were W. E. McCormick, wife and son of Reading; Robert McCormick of State College; Miss Isabel Bradford of Bellefonte; Miss Fannie Hutchinson, State College; Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Palmer; Mrs. Margaret Bollinger and Miss Caroline McClaskey.

Mrs. W. M. Sweeney and grandson Ivan Orwig, who had been quite sick, are improving and able to be around, but Mrs. Bright Orwig is confined to bed from a nervous breakdown due to nursing her mother and son. Those who called to see the sick on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Orwig of Aaronsburg; Mr. and Mrs. George Sweeney of Centre Hall; Brenam Tibbens and family of Pleasant Gap.

Mrs. Roy Smith entertained the following guests with a dinner in honor of Mr. Smith's birthday, Sunday, at Potters Mills: Mrs. Ruth Thomas and son William, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Treaster, Miss Helen Treaster, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Treaster and children Joyce, Leona, Beverly, Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Layton Treaster and son Donald, all of Milroy; Mr. and Mrs. Geard Alexander and son Ronald of Philadelphia; Mrs. Frank Penypacker and sons Ray and Jay, of Lewistown; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith and Dean and Betty Smith.

PENNY-A-WORD COLUMN.
FOR SALE—Red clover seed, $10 per bushel Also, purebred Berkshire boar, service size (not registered)—J. L. Decker, Centre Hall. x15
LOCUST POSTS and clover seed, will exchange for corn.—B. W. Ripka, Spring Mills; phone 29R11 Centre Hall.

PUBLIC AUCTION
Penns Valley Sales Barn, CENTRE HALL PENNA.
Tuesday, April 18- at 1:00 P. M.
Fresh & Springer Cows
STOCK BULLS + HORSES
ALL KINDS OF LIVESTOCK FOR SLAUGHTER
PIGS, SHOATS AND POULTRY
If you have livestock to sell bring it in for this sale. We try to please both buyer and seller.
S. T. REIGEL, Owner-Mgr.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK
CENTRE HALL, PA.

This Bank is a Member of the
FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE
FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
AMERICAN BANKER'S ASSOCIATION

CHEVROLET The only low-priced car combining
"All That's Best at Lowest Cost"

1st IN SALES
The biggest selling 1939 model car in America—and more than that—the biggest selling car for seven out of the last eight years!

1st IN PERFORMANCE
It's faster on the getaway... it's better on the hills... and a much better all-round performer... than other cars in its field.

1st IN FEATURES
Exclusive Vacuum Gearshift • New Aero-Stream Styling, New Bodies by Fisher • New Longer Riding-Base • Chevrolet's Famous Valve-in-Head Six • Perfected Hydraulic Brakes • New "Observation Car" Visibility • Perfected Knee-Action Riding System with Improved Shockproof Steering (Available on Master De Luxe models only) • Tiptoe-Matic Clutch.

1st IN VALUE
Dollar for dollar, feature for feature, car for car, it gives you more for your money than any other car in its price range—thanks to Chevrolet's volume leadership.

MILLER MOTOR COMPANY, Centre Hall