FITTING EXCUSE

"How do you like living in the country in the winter time?"
"Great. Every time there's a snowstorm I have a good excuse for staying home from the office."

A Matter for Washington

A Swedish farmer who wanted to make his permanent home in this country appeared for his naturalization papers.
"Are you satisfied with the general conditions of this country?" he was asked.
"Yah, sure," answered the hopeful one.
"And does this government of ours suit you?"
"Well, yah, mostly," stammered the man, "only I lak see more rain."

DEEP SEA TALK

"You look very despondent."

HOW TO SEW

by Ruth Wyeth Spears

Uncle Phil Says:

If They Give Their Best

Men should be judged, not by what they do, but by how well they do it.

When asked for your opinion, tell it short. It will weigh more.

Some people are way up in the social scale because they are too light to bring the scale down.

Bliss in Ignoring

A certain amount of ignorance is necessary to the enjoyment of our existence.

When you envy the fellow with a pull, get a little more push into your system.

Who hears music feels his solitude peopled at once.

Rain Will Turn It Black

Whitewashing a man's character doesn't wash it white.

Knowledge of our duties is often as important as the performance thereof.

If a tree is so crooked that it makes a picture, some prim, prissy person will want it cut down.

Unmarried Bigamist

Bigamy is not confined to the act of marrying one person when already legally married to another. Under the penal law of New York state, an unmarried person commits bigamy when he or she knowingly marries another to whom marriage is legally prohibited, a crime which is punishable by imprisonment for not more than five years, or a fine of not more than $1,000, or both.—Collier's.

Pocket for dish towels.

TWO pockets on the inside of this pantry door are used for dish towels—the upper for clean towels; the lower for soiled ones. The pockets themselves are made from four dish towels with bright red borders and are hooked onto the door with brass rings. All the dimensions for cutting, and directions for making are given here in the sketch. If toweling by the yard is used, 3/4 yards will be required.

These directions are not in either Book 1 or Book 2, so be sure to cut them out for reference. Each of the books contains complete directions for making dozens of other useful things for yourself, your home and to use for gifts and bazaars. Many readers are also making scrap books of these articles and when they are combined with the two books, they have a treasure house of ideas that have been tested by thousands of homemakers.

Book 2, Gifts, Novelties and Embroideries, contains 48 pages of step-by-step directions which have helped thousands of women. If your home is your hobby you will also want Book 1—SEWING, for the Home Decorator. Order by number, enclosing 25 cents for each. With orders for two books we include FREE, a leaflet of 36 authentic patchwork stitches. Address, Mrs. Spears, 210 S. Desplaines St., Chicago, Ill.

TIPS to Gardeners

Changing Methods

CERTAIN garden practices widely followed a generation ago have now been proved unwise.

Gardeners formerly allowed vegetables to grow as large as possible. According to Harold N. Coulter, vegetable expert of the Ferry Seed Breeding Station, this practice gave a higher yield in pounds, but very often lowered the quality of the vegetables.

Some vegetables, of course, like tomato, must be mature to be palatable; but carrots, cucumbers, beets, summer squash, turnips, radishes and others are more tender and tasty when not much more than half grown.

To keep a regular supply of vegetables of proper eating size, gardeners are finding also that it is advisable to plant often rather than once or twice a year.

Few gardeners nowadays save flower seeds. Fine flowers growing in the home garden often are cross-pollinated by others of the same species, making flowers grown from their seed inferior and untrue.
