Mr. and Mrs. Carl Runkle and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Crawford of Bloomsburg are occupying part of the farm house on the Wallace Hagen farm, east of town. The men are employed on the construction of the new road between Old Fort and Potters Mills.

James Hazel is on his vacation from the Methodist Home at Mechanicsburg and is at the home of his grandfather, R. M. Smith, in town. James, now fourteen, has had three years at the school, during which time he developed to a great extent both physically and mentally.

Mrs. Mary Neff, Mrs. Samuel Grove and Mrs. Ralph Neff of Oak Hill drove to Syracuse, N. Y., to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton. Mrs. Neff will remain with her daughter, Mrs. Hamilton, for an indefinite visit, while the others returned to their homes.

Clayton Wagner is having his farm buildings wired for electric lighting. G. F. Smith is doing the work. The dwelling house is also being improved in a number of other respects to make it attractive to live in. The farm is being cultivated by neighbor farmers.

Miss Loraine Musser of Millheim was applying in the Centre Hall telephone exchange during the latter part of last week, due to the illness of Miss Corbelle Emerick and Mrs. Marion Neff, operators. Miss Emerick was able to resume work beginning of this week, which relieved the help shortage.

W. O. Roarick, a grain and coal dealer in Millroy, well known in Penns Valley where he was engaged in business prior to leaving in Mifflin county, was a patient in the Lewistown hospital, threatened with appendicitis. He was under the care of Dr. Adams, substituting for Dr. H. C. Cassidy while he was on vacation.

Lynn Ross of Centre Hall, while employed in the construction of the concrete bridge over the Susquehanna River at Lock Haven, received an injury on the back of his neck when it was punctured by a nail protruding from a board. The wound was immediately dressed by a surgeon and no ill effects are anticipated.

At a special meeting of the Lady Templar lodge in their lodge room on Friday evening, officers for the ensuing year were installed by Mrs. D. M. Bradford. Those installed were: Noble templar, Mrs. Angeline Rieckert; prophetess, Mrs. Grace Sweeney; priestess, Mrs. Leah Zorn; inner portal, Mrs. Maggie Crawford; outer portal, Mrs. Maggie Zettle.

Miss Sarah Homan, together with members of the class in the Lutheran Sunday school she teaches, held a picnic at the former CCC Camp 62 site, in Seven Mountains, Wednesday of last week. Members of the class present were Evelyn Foyer, Phyllis Grove, Ruth Burris, Frances Noll, Anna Fay Stover, Bernadine Colbe and Geraldine Smeltzer.

Clarence Blazek is erecting a silo on his farm close to Old Fort. Mr. Blazek harvested good wheat and oats crops, had plenty hay, and the corn is very promising as is also an eight-acre plot sown to beans for either fodder or soil improvement. These notes appear here for the reason the farm on which the crops were grown was regarded lacking fertility, to such an extent it was shunned for years.

Mrs. Margaret Godshall returned home Monday night after spending several days with her brother, Geo. W. Kline, who is in the Lock Haven hospital suffering from injuries received in an automobile accident last week. Mr. Kline was on his way to work during a heavy thunder storm when his car skidded and collided with another car. He has been in a very critical condition, but shows signs of improvement.

Boys with air rifles and sling-shots are destroying song birds which have become more plentiful since bird baths, ponds, hedges, shrubbery and ornamental trees are becoming common on many of the town properties. Everyone should aim to protect birds. First, children should be taught to protect them; and second, if the first method is not effective, a demonstration of the rights of the game birds under the laws of the land. Boy Scouts should interest themselves in bird protection.

GRANGE FAIR NOTES

The Grange Encampment and Centre County Fair Committee announces several new activities for the 1939 Fair, opening August 22. Program activities will begin Thursday evening, August 24, with the first production of the Centre County Grange Players in the auditorium at 8 p. m. The staging of these one-act plays will continue thru every evening of Fair Week, Sunday excepted. Judges' decisions and awards being announced on the closing Thursday evening. Amateur programs on the band stand will follow the auditorium programs; an hour of group singing for everyone to join in being arranged for several evenings. Mrs. John Dale, in charge of this event, will have more detailed announcements later in the month. A Centre county band new on the Fair program is that of the Pleasant Gap Fire company, which will give a concert Friday evening, August 25; the Lemont band celebrates its 60th anniversary with a concert on Sunday, August 27, after the auditorium program of the Centre County Christian Endeavor Association. Both county and non-county teams will take part in baseball tournaments during Fair week.

Campers are again asked to note that camp opens Wednesday, August 23, at 1 p. m., without the payment of an additional fee. Any tent occupant, or use of a tent to store any furniture or equipment whatsoever before that time is, however, subject to the fee of $1 per day. The committee also wishes to emphasize to all exhibitors that judging of all exhibits except horses and dairy cattle will be on Tuesday, August 29, instead of Wednesday as heretofore. This makes it imperative that all articles to be exhibited shall be placed on display by 9 p. m. Monday, August 28. Post-try exhibitors please reserve space and send entry blanks to Henry Zerk, Centre Hall, by August 24.

The Committee on Religious Activities of Centre County Pomona Grange has as its slogan "Make Americans more church-conscious." To help further this end, Pomona will have two display places: a booth in the Education Building for the distribution of material on religious education, and a tent on Rhine Avenue where any person is welcome for a few minutes rest, a visit and an opportunity to see on display religious publications. Occasionally chorus groups from all parts of the county will lead a half-hour of singing at this tent. These activities are, of course, non-sectarian.

The Milk Control Commission will hold a public hearing in Harrisburg on Friday to receive evidence upon conditions to be met in the supplying of milk and certain milk products on milk orders issued to recipients of relief by the Dept. of Public Assistance of Pennsylvania. The testimony will be received regarding prices to be charged.
