Deaths

DALE.—Mrs. Charles M. Dale died Sunday afternoon at her home near State College, of complications following an illness of several months' duration. She was aged 72 years and 15 days.

Mary Fry Dale was born on July 21, 1867, at Pine Grove Mills, the daughter of Wm. H. and Sarah Larimer Fry. On March 5, 1890 she was united in marriage to Charles M. Dale, who survives with the following children: Henry of Millburg; Raymond of Miami, Fla.; Hugh of State College, and Mrs. Virginia Ricker of West Chester.

The following brothers and sisters survive: Milton Fry of Altoona, Mrs. Belle Kimpfort of Boalsburg; G. B. Mac Fry and Fred Fry of Pennsylvania Furnace; Dr. Hugh Fry of Nashville, Tenn., and Mrs. Laura Goss of Tyrone. Mrs. Dale was a member of the Boalsburg Lutheran church.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon and burial made at Boalsburg. Rev. Kaufman and Rev. Wagner officiated.

WILLIAMS.—Stewart Williams of Monaca, father of Mrs. Samuel Poorman of Bellefonte, died unexpectedly early Sunday night at the Poorman home after suffering a heart attack. Mr. Williams, with his wife and son, Victor, had motored to Bellefonte that morning to spend the day at the Poorman home.

Mr. Williams, who was employed as mine superintendent for the Harbison-Walker Brick Comptny at Monaca for many years, is survived by his wife, one son, Victor, at home, and a daughter, Mrs. Poorman.

GLENN.—George C. Glenn, south ward constable and former boro policeman, died unexpectedly Tuesday afternoon of last week from a heart attack while sitting in a chair in the dining room of his home in Bellefonte.

The deceased, who until a year ago served many years as borough truant officer, was born in Milesburg 71 years ago last August 28, a son of David and Katie Glenn. His wife, the former Anna Lingle of Potter township, survives with the following children: Mrs. Anna Latson, Rochester, N. York; James and Mrs. Leslie Shaw, both of Bellefonte.

Two sisters, Mrs. Edward Stover and Mrs. James Dawson, both of DuBois, and one grandchild survive.

JONES.—Mrs. Tammie Jones, wife of Thomas Jones, died at the family home in Scotland, South Dakota, on Tuesday, July 25, following an illness of extended duration.

Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Haines and was born at Woodward, February 29, 1870. Hence she was aged 68 years, 4 months and 27 days. She was married to Thomas Jones, who survives with a son, Thomas, Jr. of Scotland, So. Dak., and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Annie Eisenluth of State College; Wil Haines of Ames, Iowa; Mrs. Sue Stamm of Millburg; Frank Haines of Canyon, Texas; John H. Amanda and Cora Haines, all of Aaronsburg.

Burial was made at Scotland.

BARBER.—Mrs. Mary Dale Barber, wife of Rev. L. V. Barber, died at her home in Benton, Columbia county, following an illness of several months. Mrs. Barber was born in Lemont, a daughter of the late Cornelius and Georgiana Dale. In addition to her husband she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Wm. J. Twigg of Lemont and Mrs. Ethel D. Bottorf of State College. Funeral services were held Friday, in Benton, and the same day at the Lemont Presbyterian church. Interment was made in the Branch cemetery.

Weaver Family in Reunion

The fifth annual Weaver reunion was held on Grange Park on Sunday. The attendance numbered over seventy persons, many of whom were from out of town.

Prothonotary Bond C. White turned over to the county a check for $1388.94, representing the county's share in fees collected in that office during 1938 and required to be returned under an act of assembly passed May 6, 1874. Mr. White is the first Prothonotary to make any payments under this old act, according to county officials. Last year he returned about the same amount to the county.

John D. Knarr, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Knarr, is back from Camp Mead, Md., where he was in training for four weeks in the Citizens' Military Training Camp, and won spurs in several lines of work.

(Continued from previous column) FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER To the Republican voters of Centre County: I wish to announce myself as a candidate for the Republican nomination for County Commissioner at the primary election Sept. 12, 1939.

If you are in favor of economy, efficiency, and good business judgment in handling the county's business affairs by an active, successful business man, with a wide range of experience as a Contractor, Merchant, Farmer and Property Owner, your support and influence are solicited.—G. EDWARD HAUPF, Spring Township, Centre County, Pa.

FOR PROTHONOTARY

We are authorized to announce the name of BOND C. WHITE, of Bellefonte borough, as a candidate for Prothonotary of Centre county, subject to the rules governing the Republican Party at its primary election to be held on Tuesday, September 12, 1939.

Baseball

Centre Hall 2; Rebersburg 0

At Rebersburg, last Thursday, in a 7-inning twilight game, Centre Hall scored a 2-0 shutout against Rebersburg. Harold Durst opposed Don Blerly on the mound and held complete mastery over the opposing batmen.

TOUGH ON SPRING MILLS

By a smashing victory over Spring Mills, on the latter's field, Saturday afternoon, by a score of 11 to 4, Centre Hall loomed up as a serious rival for championship honors in the second half of the league race. As a result of the victory the local club came within a half game of PGM, the league leaders.

Saturday's game chalked up 17 safe hits for the local club, while Spring Mills could connect safely only four times from the Martz brothers' offerings.

CENTRE HALL IN TIE WITH P.G.M. FOR 1ST POSITION

Pine Grove Mills' failure to put in an appearance at Pleasant Gap Tuesday evening to play off at the game resulted in a forfeit to Pleasant Gap by the customary 5-0 score. This brought Centre Hall and Pine Grove Mills to a tie for first place in the league standing.

The position of the various clubs follows:
