HE IS AN AMERICAN

[Editorial from the New York Sun] He is an American. He hears an airplane overhead, and if he looks up at all, does so in curiosity rather than in fear nor in the hope of seeing a protector. His wife goes marketing, and her purchases are limited by her needs, her tastes, her budget, but not by decree. He comes home of an evening through streets which are well lighted, not dimly in blue. He reads his newspaper and knows that what it says is not concocted by a bureau, but an honest, untrammelled effort to present the truth. He has never had a gas mask on. He has never been in a bombproof shelter. His military training, an R. O. T. C. course in college, he took because it excited him from the gym course, and it was not compulsory. He belongs to such fraternal organizations and clubs as he wishes. He adheres to a political party to the extent that he desires—the dominant one, if that be his choice, but with the distinct reservation that he may criticize any of its policies with all the vigor which to him seems proper—any other than his convictions dictate, even, if it be his decision, one which holds that the theory of government of the country is wrong and should be scrapped. He does not believe, if his party is out of power, that the only way in which it can come into power is through a bloody revolution. He converses with friends, even with chance acquaintances, expressing freely his opinion on any subject.

Deaths

KLINGE.—Daniel Manna Klinge, after a three months' illness passed away in the Centre County hospital at 7 o'clock Friday night. He suffered a stroke three months ago. Mr. Klinge was born in Penns Valley April 29, 1866, hence was in his seventy-fourth year. He was the son of Harrison and Annetta Gentzel Klinge. He married Alca A. Keller who died August 13, 1938. The daughter, Mrs. Fred Witmer, survives as well as a grandson, Richard Witmer, both at home. Two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Showers, Buffalo, N. Y., and Mrs. Clark Carsons, Bellefonte, and two brothers, Robert E. Klinge and O. A. Klinge, both of Bellefonte, survive.

Fourteen years ago the deceased moved to Bellefonte from his farm which he had operated between Pleasant Gap and Axemann for more than forty years. Arnold, pastor of the Lutheran church. Burial was made in the Lutheran cemetery, Pleasant Gap.

STYERS.—Mrs. Mary Agnes Styers, widow of the late Samuel Styers, died at her home along Pine Creek road, Woodward, R. D. Saturday a week ago, following an illness of diseases incident to her advanced age.

She was a daughter of Marcus and Hyate (Wise) Haines and was born in Haines township, January 5, 1869, hence was aged 70 years, 9 months and 9 days. She was married to Samuel Styers, who passed to his reward a few years ago. Surviving are the following children: Fred, at home; Jacob, of Rebersburg; Mrs. Thomas Snyder, of near Coburn; and Ernest, of Woodward, R. D. Also surviving are three brothers: William, Calvin, and Luther Haines, all of Woodward.

Child Has Dread Disease

A victim of tubercular meningitis, Patricia Louise Toner, 5-year-old daughter of Andrew Toner, Bellefonte, is in a critical condition in the Centre County hospital. The little girl became ill two weeks ago. She has been unconscious since Sunday. The disease is said to be not of an infectious type.

without fear. He does not expect his mail to be opened between posting and receipt nor his telephone to be tapped. He changes his place of dwelling and does not report so doing to the police. He has not registered with the police.

He carries an identification card only in case he should be the victim of a traffic accident. He thinks of his neighbors across international borders—of those to the north as though they were across a State line rather than as foreigners—of those to the south more as strangers, since they speak a language different from his, and with the knowledge that there are now matters of difference between his Government and theirs, but of neither with an expectancy of war. He worships God in the fashion of his choice, without let. His children are with him in his home, neither removed to a place of greater safety, if young, nor, if older, ordered ready to serve the state with sacrifice of limb or life.

He has his problems, his troubles, his uncertainties, but all others are not overshadowed by the imminence of battle and sudden death. He should struggle to preserve his Americanism with its priceless privileges. He is a fortunate man. He is an American.

LOCAL WOMEN'S CLUB

HEAR DR. HOFFMAN SPEAK ON SYPHILIS

Dr. Richards Hoffman, director of the Luetie Clinic at the Centre County hospital, spoke Tuesday evening at a meeting of the Women's Club on siphilis. He deplored the slow progress made in combating this disease in this country as compared with other countries, notably Norway and Sweden, and attributes it to the ridiculous misconceptions surrounding the disease.

Contrary to the popular conception, most cases of siphilis are curable in eighteen months, although several years may be required for the more advanced ones. Dr. Hoffman insists that the social stigma attached to those being treated for siphilis is absurd because, of the persons he has treated, at least fifty per cent contracted the disease through no fault of their own. Besides, the treatment makes the disease non-communicable.

At this same meeting the Red Cross nurse from State College spoke to the club of the possibility of organizing nutrition, home hygiene, or first aid classes here if sufficient interest is shown in such a course.

HARRY A. CORMAN, CANDIDATE FOR REGISTER OF WILLS

There is no denying the fact that Penns Valley is entitled to some of the county offices. The south side of Centre county is important in many ways, and should be represented in the official business of the county at the court house.

One man seeking office from this side is Harry A. Corman of Gregg township, candidate for Register of Wills and Clerk of the Orphans' Court. It is an important office, and this year Centre county voters will have an opportunity to vote for a man eminently qualified to be a worthy successor to Mr. Wetzel.

A farmer by choice, Mr. Corman is a certified accountant and is educationally equipped to conduct the office in an exact and legal manner.

As stated above, the Register's office is one of the most important in the county. It is there that wills and most everything pertaining to estates are entered of record. Everything must be transcribed as written. The misplacement of a comma or a period might result in much costly litigation, hence the necessity of accuracy.

During the past four years Mr. Corman has served as county auditor, and his work there has always been approved by the Court. If elected Register he will perform the duties of that office just as efficiently as he has filled various other offices.

The fact that he served for a time as an inspector for the Pennsylvania Railroad and a bookkeeper in the Altoona branch of Armour & Co., before he decided to go farming is evidence of his ability.

Voters of Centre county should carefully consider the qualifications of the two candidates for this important office before casting their vote, then vote for Mr. Corman.

CHARLES H. LEE WOULD PROVE GOOD CO. TREASURER

The political campaign in Centre county is approaching the wind-up, and one man who deserves the support of voters generally is Charles H. Lee of Walker township, Democratic candidate for County Treasurer, not because he is a Democrat, but because he is worthy of the office to which he aspires, and is the only man on any ticket representing that section of the county.

Although in his 64th year, he is as hearty and vigorous as a man ten years younger, and has reached that age of discretion with which a man entrusted with the handling of the county funds should be endowed. Born on a farm in Marion township, he is located on a farm in Walker township when he branched out for himself. Starting out as a renter he in due time bought the farm, paid for it and has made it one of the nicest homes in Nittany Valley.

He is a member of the church and elder of the Reformed church, and of the order of the Reformers. He has served as a board's member, and comes before the voters clean as a hound's tooth. Though not a college graduate, he is capable to conduct the affairs of the office to which he aspires and honest as the day is long.

He has started an active canvass of the county and when he calls on you—Democrat or Republican—give him an earnest hearing. He is worthy of that and also your vote.

50 YEARS FOR BELLEFONTE EVANGELICAL CHURCH

The 50th anniversary of the founding of the Bellefonte Evangelical church is being celebrated during a series of special services during this week and closing October 29. Rev. H. H. Jacobs is pastor. The week-day services are having former pastors as guest speakers. On Monday it was the Rev. J. F. Howler, retired, of Milton; Tuesday, a fellowship dinner at 6:30 was served with the Rev. Reed O. Stealy of Berwick, speaking; Wednesday, the Rev. J. W. Zang of State College; Thursday, the presentation of the Central Pa. Conference centennial pageant, "The Open Door"; Friday, a concert of the Evangelical Ministers' chorus. Homecoming Day will be observed on Sunday, October 29, in the church school, H. W. Kaler, of Washingtonville, and Dale Musser, of Altoona, former superintendents, will speak. The Rev. W. B. Cox of Lewisburg will preach in the morning and the Rev. J. B. Mays of Williamsport will preach in the evening. Scores of former members are expected to return.

Jack Riegel, formerly of Centre Hall but now living with his sister in State College, is a tackle on the State College Junior high school football team. To date he has played eleven quarters, which is more than enough to obtain a letter.
