

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mrs. Edna Noll of Pleasant Gap spent the week-end with Miss Elizabeth Bartholomew.

Mrs. Roxanna Robertson spent Sunday evening with Miss Ruth Smith in Bellefonte.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Breen is to be named Nancy Marie.

Donald E. Coldron visited among friends in Altoona over the week-end. Need more be said?

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd M. Kerlin and family of New Cumberland were at their Colyer home over the week-end.

Rev. and Mrs. D. R. Keener and baby daughter will be in Fleetwood with relatives over the week-end.

The Ladies' Bible class of the Reformed church held a regular meeting last night at the home of Mrs. Frank Williams.

Lester Garbrick recently began work as a mechanic at O'Bryan's service station just east of State College on U. S. Route 322.

Vinton McClellan spent the week-end and Monday with his mother. The Gettysburg students celebrated a football victory over Muhlenburg by declaring a holiday Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Crab and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grenoble of Lewisburg were Sunday guests at the Bartholomew home. Mrs. Grenoble remained for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. David Stoner, Mrs. Alma Rickert and Lillian Rickert were guests at the home of Mrs. Stoner's brother, William Smith, at Millheim, Sunday.

The Centre Hill line of the West Penn Power company has been extended a distance of half a mile to take care of the farm buildings on the E. Clayton Wagner farm.

Seventeen men from the local Evangelical church attended the annual Albright Brotherhood banquet last Thursday evening in Grace Evangelical church, Lewistown.

The November meeting of the Alumni Association will be held Friday night, November 24 at eight o'clock, in the high school building. The Christmas banquet will be the principal item of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Myers moved on Saturday from Mrs. George Tressler's house (the former shoe repair shop) to a four-room house erected by him in the neighborhood known as "Hollywood."

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Colyer have received word of the safe arrival of their daughter, Miss Evelyn Colyer, in New York City, on Saturday. She had been in Europe for several months as a companion to a New York City lady.

Mr. and Mrs. Gervin Schaeffer and daughter, Beryl, of McAllisterville, visited with relatives here over the week-end. Mr. Schaeffer is doing nicely in the poultry business, in which he established himself a year ago at McAllisterville.

Mrs. Anna Bartholomew, Mrs. Elizabeth Bartholomew, Mrs. Robert Grenoble and Mrs. G. W. Smith visited Mr. Smith in the Lewistown hospital Sunday afternoon, and found him comfortable and in good spirits. He was able to sit on a chair for a half hour.

Mrs. Wm. A. Magee, her sister, Mrs. Harold O. Alexander, and two children, of Wenonah, N. J., arrived in Centre Hall the latter part of last week. Mrs. Alexander and the children left for home early in the week, while Mrs. Magee will remain a while longer with her mother, Mrs. E. M. Huyett.

A Christmas bazaar is being arranged by the Ladies' Aid of the Evangelical church for Friday evening, and Saturday afternoon and evening, December 1 and 2, in the Sunday school room. Pillow cases, towels, aprons, luncheon cloths, and other hand-made articles will be on sale and baked goods will be available Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur McClellan, with their son Marlin, spent Sunday with their parents here. Mrs. McClellan has just returned from a merger conference of the women's organizations of the Evangelical and Reformed Churches in Cleveland, Ohio, to which she was sent as a delegate. During her absence Mrs. Tressler McClellan kept house for her son and grandson in Lock Haven.

The annual father and son banquet of the Reformed church will be served in the basement of the church by the Ladies' Bible Class Thursday, November 16. J. F. Wetzel has been engaged as the principal speaker of the evening and Robert Arney will speak as a representative of the sons. The fathers will be similarly represented although it is not yet known by whom.

Miss Miriam Mitterling, cashier at the Dairy store in State College, accompanied by a friend, Miss Weaver, on her way home Saturday night, slipping off the road two miles east of State College and went down a short embankment, damaging her car slightly. A wrecker was called to bring the car back on the road, but it was a slow process and it was 4 o'clock in the morning before Miss Mitterling reached her home in Centre Hall.

George Lutz and bride of ten days, the former, Leona Reed, of Milroy, arrived in Centre Hall a few days ago after a honeymoon trip to the land of warmth and sunshine—Florida. On their return north, traversing the state of North Carolina, they were surprised to encounter a foot of snow. The young couple are ready to begin housekeeping, and will take up their responsible bit of marital business at once in the former Fred Bender property, purchased on Saturday by D. C. Mitterling.

BOND C. WHITE, REPUBLICAN Re-Elected to Office of Prothonotary

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Shannon Booser returned to her home from the Centre County hospital Tuesday.

Mrs. Lavan Smith expects to spend this week-end at State College at the home of her sister.

Miss Barbara Jones of Paxtonville will spend her vacation with Mr. and Mrs. David I. Graybill. Miss Jones and Mrs. Graybill are cousins.

Mrs. C. F. Emery, last Wednesday, entertained at her home Mrs. Alice Ross of Scranton, Mrs. Ida Shirik and the E. M. Smith family of State College.

S. W. Smith continues to improve at the Lewistown City hospital following a surgical operation. It is probable he will be returned to his home within a short time.

Friday night, November 17, the Junior Business class of the local high school will sponsor a round and square dance. The admission will be 35 cents.

Twelve club members attended the regular monthly meeting of the Centre county 4-H Lamb Club in the Agricultural Extension Office in Bellefonte on Monday evening, Nov. 6.

The Grange Fair Association will begin next week to place an eight-foot fence entirely around Grange Park. This fence, similar to the one on the East side of the park, will be purchased from the Page Fence Co.

Funds secured through the magazine campaign conducted by the seniors of the local high school amounted to $55.50 to date. The Curtis drive sponsored by the whole school has collected $49.58 in subscriptions.

The following persons attended the funeral of John P. Brooks, killed in a motor accident in Harborton, Ohio, on Friday, an account of which appears elsewhere: Mrs. Annie Brooks, Stanley Brooks, Centre Hall; Jewett Brooks, Pleasant Gap; Douglas Brooks, Bellefonte, R. D.; Mrs. Lynn Platt, State College; Mrs. Ada Breen, Irwin.

Prof. J. F. Wetzel spoke last night (Wednesday) at a father and son banquet in a Lutheran church near Lamar on "What we expect of our sons and what they expect of us." The Rev. Paul Keller, pastor of the church, and Mr. Wetzel became acquainted through the County Sunday School Board of which both are members.

HUNTING ACCIDENTS

Two Phillipsburg high school students, William Supina and Robert Johnston, were injured on the first day of the hunting season when a member of their hunting party accidentally shot them when he fired at a rabbit.

Supina was struck above the heart with five pellets, one pierced his nose, three struck him on the face, and several entered the right side of his head.

Part of Robert Johnston's upper lip was sliced open when a pellet struck him in the mouth.

Both boys were treated by a physician who gave them serum shots to prevent tetanus. Several pellets were removed from Supina's body. The physician stated the pellets, which had penetrated deeply, would soon push out from Supina's skin.

In other accidents on the first day of small game season Lawrence Cardebough of Mahaffey accidentally shot himself in the left foot.

An 11-year-old Tyrone R. D. school girl was accidentally shot by a hunter, and a Duncansville hunter wounded by his brother-in-law in Central Pennsylvania hunting accidents reported on the second day of the season. The school girl, Lillian Baudauf, was shot in the forehead. W. B. Carabaugh, the hunter, stated he had fired at a rabbit near the road where the girl was walking and that some of the pellets struck the girl.

Ralph Chapman, 25, Duncansville, was shot in the left leg between the knee and the hip by his brother-in-law, John Toth, as the two hunters were walking through a thicket.

BUFFET SUPPERS ARE POPULAR

By Louise Brown

BE a lazy hostess and make your parties this winter the help-yourself kind. Set up a buffet supper table in the kitchen, dining room or game room, put your electric table appliances to work and let the guests serve themselves. The coffee maker, toaster, grill, waffle iron, roaster, chafing dish and food warmer all suggest menus based on delicious hot dishes that are really fun to serve.

Many hostesses are adopting this smart way of serving, for its very informality helps make the party a success. No one can remain stiff when the line "forms to the right" to raid the supper table. Just be sure to have plenty of everything so folks can wonder back two and three times for "refills."

Men who usually scorn the sweet salad or ice cream and cake—the stereotyped form of refreshment—take to cheese rarebit or pink, juicy slices of ham hot from the roaster, as the proverbial duck takes to water.

The electric roaster is one of the most versatile aids to entertaining I know of. Whether you are cooking for 4, 6 or 20, there's plenty of room for lots of food. And you needn't remove the food to serving dishes but can take the roaster right to the table for serving.

Have fun at your own parties by serving buffet suppers with the aid of your table appliances.

this way the food stays piping hot. For a large crowd you can cook enough chop suey, chile con carne, chicken a la king, baked beans, goulash with dumplings, or spaghetti and meat balls in the large inset pan of the roaster to serve twenty or thirty people liberally.

Plan your table setting around whatever table appliances you intend to use, so that you won't have to rearrange things at the last minute to make room for them. You'll be surprised at the unusual effects you can work out. I've even seen a roaster set up on an ironer and the guests served at card tables in the basement.

- Buffet Supper
- Grilled Appetizers
- Baked Ham
- Hot Rolls
- Vegetable Salad
- Coffee
- Baked Beans
- Whole Cloves
- Brown sugar

Select a mild cured ham. Trim off the rind and excess fat. Score the fat in one-inch diamond pattern and press cloves into every other space. Place ham, fat side up, in large baking pan of roaster. Cover ham with brown sugar.

Bake at 350° F, allowing 30 minutes per pound. If tenderized or precooked ham is used, 1 to 1½ hours baking is sufficient to heat it thoroughly and melt the sugar. This type of ham requires no further cooking.

- Baked Beans
- 3 large cans baked beans
- 4 tablespoons molasses
- 3 tablespoons brown sugar
- ½ teaspoon dry mustard
- Combine all ingredients in one of the covered baking pans of the roaster. Bake with ham using the same time and temperature.

Hot Rolls

To heat rolls, place them in baking pan of roaster the last 15 minutes of the baking period. The pan should not be covered.

- Green Salad Bowl
- 1 clove garlic
- ½ head lettuce, shredded
- 1 bunch radishes, sliced
- 1 green pepper, cubed
- 2 cups diced celery
- 1 small head cauliflower, divided into flowerettes
- 2 tomatoes, quartered
- French dressing
- Rub salad bowl with garlic. Toss prepared vegetables together in bowl with French dressing.
