For vocational education, Centre county school districts having this course of study will receive a total of $7,004.50 within the next few days. Only two or three schools in the county benefit from the appropriation.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS OF POTTER AND CENTRE HALL ENTERTAIN TEACHERS, FRIDAY NIGHT

Nearly three score Potter township and Centre Hall borough school teachers, including the school directors in both districts, enjoyed an evening of pleasure in the local high school building Friday night.

A spelling bee in which teachers were the principal contestants was held and was unusual in that the contestants were required to spell the words backwards. A few of the ladies exhibited a real faculty for going in reverse on their spelling. An "egg-blowing" contest and doughnut eating contest in which the doughnuts were suspended from a string kept the onlookers amused while discomfiture was the lot of all who strove to win the coveted (?) prizes.

Square and round dancing was enjoyed. Paul Horner and assistants furnished the music. The refreshment committee provided an abundance of eats.

In addition, four communities rejected the proposal for an "open Sunday." Sixteen municipalities in the State voted on Sunday movies and one only—Forty Fort borough in Luzerne county near Wilkes-Barre, opposed them.

Only five communities balloted on Sunday sports and three of those voted to lift the ban. Palmyra, Lebanon county, and East Hanover, township, Dauphin county, turned thumbs down on the proposal to allow Sunday sports.

Even as mounting returns apparently spelled defeat for his campaign Dr. William B. Forney, executive secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance pledged a "big fight" for the banning of Sunday movies and sports in 1940. Philadelphia will be one point of contact in the drive, he said.

SCHOOL DIRECTOR-ELECT IS INELIGIBLE TO OFFICE

When the local school board meets for the purpose of inducting the newly-elected directors into office, they will be confronted with the necessity of refusing to give one of the elected men a place on the board.

The two directors elected were R. S. Hagan, who in reality was re-elected; and Prof. L. O. Packer, who because of his having been a resident of the district less than one year prior to his election, is ineligible to serve as a school director. Mr. Packer had been a high school instructor in Pittsburgh for many years. At the close of the last school term, in June, he took up his permanent residence in Centre Hall.

It is to be regretted that information on the point of eligibility was not gained before Mr. Packer's name was placed on the ballot.

The school board may name another citizen to fill the vacancy, which office the appointee may hold until the next municipal election. Again, the board may present a name to the Court, and upon confirmation by the Court, the one appointed may serve the full term of six years.

E. A. Tyson and Wm. N. Duck, instructors of Millheim's 5th, 6th and 7th and 8th grades, gave their pupils a rare treat, as well as a tour of educational value, when they took the total enrollment of their grades to the county seat one day last week. They went to Bellefonte by bus and spent the day visiting the court house, the new county home, the Mt. Spring, and other points of interest.

The Sprucetown M. E. church chicken supper, served the other Saturday evening, was so well patronized that it was impossible to serve all who desired to partake of the supper. An unexpected, but none-the-less, welcome, aggregation putting in their appearance were the Republican candidates for county office. They seized upon the opportunity to present themselves before a group of voters, and made the most of it. One "sport," 'tis said, paid double the advertised price of the supper, just to be a "good fellow."
