SERIOUS THINKING

"Well, what's going on, old man?"
"Don't know—only thinking about what can come off!"

Acid Test

"Are you an expert accountant?" asked the prospective employer.
"Yes, sir," responded the applicant.
"Your written references seem to be all right, but tell me more about yourself."
"Well, my wife kept a household account for 30 days. One night after dinner I sat down and in less than an hour found out how much we owed our grocer."
"Hang up your hat and coat, the job is yours."

HE ROLLED THE BONES

"My brother supports himself by rolling the bones."
"Crap-shooter, eh?"
"Are you trying to insult me? My brother is an osteopath, sir!"

A Little Bit Humorous

RING THAT BELL

An Italian who was working on a railway in Florida had been told to beware of rattlesnakes, but was assured that they would always give the warning rattle before striking. One day he was sitting on a pine log eating his dinner when he saw a big snake coiled a few feet in front of him. Keeping an eye on the reptile, he began to raise his feet from the ground, and as he did so the snake's fangs hit the bark beneath him, no warning having been given. "Son of a gun!" yelled the Italian. "Why you no ringa da bell?"

A NATURAL ERROR

License Clerk—Maybe I can change your license number for you. What's the matter with the one you have?
Henry Carr—The number I have now is 1898 and my friends are always mistaking it for the date of my car.

A Little Too Loud

A Topeka business man employs two Negroes to work on his gardens, which he personally oversees. One morning Sam did not appear. "Where is Sam, George?" he asked.
"In de hospital, sah."
"In the hospital? Why, how did that happen?"
"Well, Sam he been a-tellin' me ev'ry mornin' foh 10 days he gwine to lick his wife, 'cause o' her naggin'."
"Well?"
"Well, yestiddy she done oveh-heah him, dat's all."

Original-to Her

"He's a most original man and told me things I never heard from any other man."
"Did he ask you to become his wife?"

Rather Poor Judge

Lady—I want a bottle of aspirins, six lemons, and a tin of bath mustard.
Druggist—Thank you, madam. Is everybody at home well?

Real Pin Money

"Your wife says she only asks for pin money?"
"Yes, but the first pin she wanted had 12 diamonds in it."

BELL OR BELLE

"Joe, I wantcha to meet me girl, Belle."
"Ha, ha, does she ring?"
"No Sap, she's only a dumb bell!"

Second Best for Him

"The best thing for you," said the doctor, "is to give up drinking and smoking, go to bed early every night, and get up early in the morning."
"Doctor," replied the patient, solemnly, "I don't feel somehow that I deserve the best; what's the second best?"

Ready for Anything

Maud—You can't believe everything you hear.
Gladys—No, but that makes no difference with me. Let me hear what you were going to tell me.

Nice Wives

First Husband—My wife is so tender-hearted she won't whip cream.
Second Husband—That's nothing. My wife absolutely refuses to beat rugs, and tears come to her eyes every time she has to skin an onion.

Snappy Comeback

He (trying to be clever)—If an extremely handsome man should ask you for a kiss, what would you tell me?
She—I'd tell you to go away and leave us alone.

PATTERN SEWING CIRCLE DEPARTMENT

AROUND the HOUSE Items of Interest to the Housewife

Removing Mildew.—Mildew may be successfully removed by using kerosene. Saturate the garment with it thoroughly, roll it up and put it away for 24 hours. Wash in warm suds and all trace of mildew will be gone.

For Ink Stains.—Immerse an ink-stained handkerchief in milk immediately after it has been stained, allow it to soak and the ink will disappear.

To Thicken Frosting.—If in making frosting you add too much water to the confectioner's sugar, instead of adding more sugar add flour to thicken the frosting. It will be impossible to detect the taste of flour.

Tightly Cover Baking Powder.—Baking powder should be tightly covered and stored in a cool, dry place to preserve leavening power.

Freshening Celery.—Celery which has become wilted may be freshened by standing in a jug of water to which a pinch of bicarbonate of soda has been added.

Peeling Squash.—Squash may be easily peeled if it is first put into the oven and thoroughly warmed.

Removing Scorch.—To remove scorch from linen place between two dampened Turkish towels and press with a hot iron. The scorch stains will go into the towel and can be easily washed out.

Hagerstown, Md. — Peter F. Ragland, 427 Mechanic St., says: "I could hardly walk, much less do any work. I scarcely ate anything, and lost many pounds. I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it put me back on my feet. It gave me a fine appetite and I gained weight and strength and was then able to work." Buy it from your druggist today.

Seek Virtues
It is a much shallower and more ignoble thing to detect faults than to discern virtues.—Carlyle.
