G.T.V.S. Juniors Present Plays Friday, December 8

On Friday, December 8, in the school auditorium at Spring Mills at 7:30 p. m., the Junior class of G.T.V.S. will present two interesting plays.

The first play entitled "Making Mother Modern" is about a mother who is quite content with the ways which have really been a part of her life, but the daughters insist, so reluctantly she consents to be made over.

Cast of characters: Mother..... Jean Musser Lillian..... Ruth Hennick Dora..... Barbara Fetterolf Ella..... Lois Shook Mabel..... Bernice Horner Mrs. Sloane..... Helen Haugh Mrs. Finn..... Gladys Strickler Sarah Tallman..... Mable Johnson Mrs. Baldwin..... Geraldine Langle Mrs. Blake..... Bernice Shook Mrs. Franchion..... Marie Noll Mrs. Rice..... Helen Wallace Bridget..... Faye Yearick Mrs. Bond..... Gladys Shawyer Mrs. Levine..... Marjorie Langle Princess Iiso..... Pauline Stitzer Aunt Amanda..... Maxine Long Gladys Rose..... Hazel McCool Mrs. Penn Clark..... Alice Evert Dancing Teacher..... Dolores Condo

The one-act play, "The Laundry Mark" is the story of Winfred Donovan, "Win" for short, and it's pleasant telling. Win is a 100 per cent American boy, hardly clear of one adventure until he is started on another. His name is his greatest handicap for strangers invariably think of him as a girl and his friends take him for a ride.

Cast: Rhoda Donovan..... Ruth Zubler Mrs. Donovan..... Mary Zettle Madeline Donovan..... Bernice Fetterolf Winfred Donovan..... Hallard Zettle Roundy Robbins..... Kenneth Albright Uncle Harvey..... Donald Roseman Mr. Donovan..... Walter Snavely Virginia Donovan..... Russell Houser '42 Musie..... Dolores Condo Dr. Stephen Elster..... Harold Walker Mimi..... Alice Evert Margie..... Hazel McCool Lady Saxophone Player, Faye Yearick Miss Atchinson..... Sara Zubler Mr. Bixley..... Harold Kennelly '40 Mr. Harker..... Marshall Frazier '40 Jasper—a dog.

TUSSEYVILLE

Mrs. Wm. Myers returned home on Sunday from Philadelphia somewhat improved.

W. S. Martz, Mrs. Paul Martz and daughter attended the butchering at the Willard Smith home one day last week.

Maxine Yonkers is slowly improving, but will be required to remain in bed several weeks longer.

Adam Smith was one of the fortunate hunters to kill a deer. He was hunting alone.

Mrs. Anna Runkle spent Thursday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Decker, the attraction being a new boy who has been named Jack Edwin.

Milton Kline and family spent Tuesday at the John Stoner home at the Branch.

Fred Curry of State College spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Anna Runkle.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkey Horner were shoppers in Millheim on Tuesday.

Rob Horner has found employment in the railroad shops at Altoona. The young man is working under extreme difficulties, since a rubber tube extending through his nose and down to his stomach is necessary for sixteen hours out of every twenty-four in the day. This is to stretch the oesophagus and also permit the partaking of food.

BOALSBURG

Those who took dinner at the J. Roy Smith home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Schnering, Mr. Morgan and Mr. Cole from Allentown, and Mrs. Helen Treaster and son of Millroy.

Mrs. W. M. Sweeney is not improving at this writing; Miss Amelia Copenhaver, R. N., is helping to care for her.

The lucky hunters from Potters Mills section were Bob Lingle who killed a buck on Friday morning while on his milk route in the Mrs. F. A. Carson field near the village; Messrs. Eugene and Lowell Smith and Harry Faust killed theirs in Kohler Valley and Dean Smith, aged 17 years was the only lucky one in a crowd

Tonight... Perhaps?

Tonight, perhaps, someone you know is a little lonely... Tonight, perhaps, she'd give a lot to hear your voice... Perhaps tonight you'll call her by Long Distance. And she'll think of that call for days... and be happier because of it. So will you.

Rates are extra low on most Long Distance calls every night after seven and all day Sunday.
