A COLLECTION OF NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND PERSONALS FROM GREGG TWP.'S METROPOLIS.

Civic Club Hold Leap Year Party
—To-night (Wednesday) a Leap Year party will be a feature of a regular meeting of the Gregg Township Civic Club at the Gregg Township Vocational school. The party will follow the usual business session.

From the depths of winter to the comparative heights of Spring have fluctuated the temperatures in this area during the past few weeks; sweeping gales of snow, sleet and rain have accompanied the weather changes which resulted in water shortages and frozen water pipes.

Considerable sickness has been reported with numerous residents confined to their homes by grip and colds.

If public sales can be taken as a criterion, a number of persons are planning to move in the spring.

Mrs. Vera Myers visited friends at State College on Saturday.

A crew of men moved a shovel and road machinery to a point where they will start to put in the missing link of the road in the eastern part of Georges Valley; they also put new plank on the bridge that crosses Penna Creek at the silk mill.

Among those on the sick list are Samuel Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bartges, Earl Bartley and Alram Grassmyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cummings of Rebersburg were guests at the Albin Jacobson home Wednesday evening.

H. E. Henry spent Thursday in Lewistown visiting his mother.

Harry Brungard of State College visited his mother, Mrs. Lulu Brungard, on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Geraldine Jacobson and Mrs. Roy Searson spent Thursday at State College, visiting friends.

The Spring Mills Townsend Club banquet last Wednesday evening was largely attended. Hon. Kenneth Haines of Rebersburg and Hon. John W. Decker were the speakers of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wentzel of Loganport were guests at the C. E. Ziegler home Wednesday evening.

No admission will be charged for the party, and all residents of Gregg township are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Samuel Brown, aged resident of Spring Mills, is reported to be in a very serious condition owing to illness.

Miss Mary Slegal of Spring Mills, the county nurse, visited the Rebersburg school one day last week.

Howard Comes from Behind to Defeat Gregg at Basketball, 27-23

Spring Mills Vocational's basketball quintet suffered defeat at the hands of the Howard team on Friday evening, 27 to 23. It was in the last quarter that the Gregg team lost out, showing leads of 10-7, 16-15 and 20 to 19 in the first three periods.

The players and points scored:
Spring Mills—E. Rossman f. 2; Kennelley f. 3; C. Houser c. 5; D. Rossman g. 9; Feltenberger g. 1; Runkle 3; Frazier 0; total, 23.
Howard—Yearick f. 5; Gardner f. 1; Miller c. 18; Confer g. 0; Shenck f. 2; Holter, 1; Kunes, 0; Amick, 0.
—Total 27.

TUSSEYVILLE

Miss Mary Dashem is visiting in Altoona with her aunt, Mrs. Harry Harsbarger, and family.

Miss Esther Hastings spent the week-end at her home in Avis.

A baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rishel, at the service station near Tusseyville.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett of Tyrone; the Ward Wagner family of Lewistown; Fred Perry of State College; and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Decker of near Centre Hall visited at the Anna Runkle home on Sunday.

Mrs. Catharine Baird of Pleasant Gap is at the home of Mrs. Ida Jordan where she is doing some sewing.

Mrs. Margretta Horner and children of State College and Mr. and Mrs. George Gumm, of Pa. Furnace spent Sunday at the Rocky-Brouse home.

Miss Dorothy McMichael, Colyer school teacher, spent Friday night with Miss Mary Fortney.

Mrs. Kathryn Mess, at the John Jordan home, whose illness with pneumonia was noted last week, is improving.

Mrs. Jennie Rockey, daughter, Myra, and Mrs. Lester Brouse, daughter Emma Jene and son Tommy were Saturday evening supper guests at the Bartholomew home in Centre Hall.

Joint Council Meeting

A special meeting of the joint council of the Penns Valley Lutheran church will be held Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, at Centre Hall. The trustees of the church are requested to be present.—Secretary.

PRUNING DEMONSTRATIONS

TO BE HELD IN COUNTY
Spring will soon be here in spite of the ground hog and the thunder showers, according to County Agent R. C. Blaney. With spring comes the problem of pruning, and with this in mind, three demonstrations have been arranged in Centre county at which J. L. McCartney of the Agricultural Extension Service at State College will demonstrate the pruning of apples, peaches, grape vines and other types of fruit. These meetings will be held according to the following schedule:

Thurs., Feb. 22 at 2:30 P. M.—Herry Corman residence, Spring Mills.

Friday, Feb. 23 at 10 A. M.—Herbert Schenck residence, Howard.

Friday, Feb. 23 at 2:00 P. M.—Mrs. Charles Mensch residence, Allegheny street, Bellefonte.

If you have pruning to do attend one of these demonstrations.

POTTERS MILLS

Russell Copenhaver and daughter Donna of Bellefonte visited on Wednesday afternoon at the H. E. Faust home to see his mother, who had been confined to bed with an attack of the grip, but is able to be around again.

Clyde Walker and family, Lee Brian and family of Bellefonte visited on Sunday at the E. B. Palmer home.

John Blauser, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Boal, visited Mr. Boal's brother, John, at Huntingdon, on Friday. John Boal is in the Huntingdon hospital.

Frank Phillips and family have moved from Milroy into the home they purchased.

Belght Orvig and family have moved to Huntingdon where he has been employed.

Mrs. M. A. Sankey and daughter, Mrs. Bagshaw, called on friends Sunday afternoon.

Miss Amelia Copenhaver has been visiting the past week with a girl friend in Lock Haven.

Miss Geraldine Hoover visited over the week-end with her parents in Altoona.

Mrs. Ulom (nee Pearl McKinney) having been called home on account of the death of her mother, and after having visited among her sisters and brothers, has returned to her home in Pontiac, Michigan.

The Sprucetown Ladies' Aid and Official Board were entertained at the Methodist parsonage on Wednesday evening.

R. H. McCormick and wife of State College; Charles Jodon and wife of Bellefonte took supper at the G. H. McCormick home on Sunday.
