A COLLECTION OF NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND PERSONALS FROM GREGG TWP.'S METROPOLIS.

Gregg Boys and Girls Win from Centre Hall in Basketball

A big third quarter gave Gregg Township Vocational a 20-22 victory over Centre Hall in a Centre-Clinton basketball league game at Spring Mills last Tuesday night.

The triumph kept Gregg one game out of first place in the standings. Centre Hall led by 7-6 in the first quarter and 12-10 at half time but Spring Mills went ahead by 27-14 during the third period.

Ralston, Centre Hall's forward, tallied 14 points to take individual honors. Kennelly of Spring Mills was runner-up with 11.

Gregg township's girls recorded their 12th straight victory in downing the Centre Hall lassies, 45-11, in a preliminary game.

The players and points scored in the boys' game:

Centre Hall—Ralston f. 14; Harter f. 0; Smith c. 5; McCormick g. 0; Bradford g. 0; Frank, 2; Ross, 1; Martz, 0; total, 22.

Spring Mills—Kennelly f. 11; Feltenberger f. 4; Houser c. 6; Runkle g. 7; D. Rossman g. 2; E. Rossman g. 0; Frazier, 0; total, 30.

Mrs. H. F. Shook of Spring Mills has been confined to her home for the past twenty-seven weeks, her illness being due to a spine condition. She is getting better but the recovery is slow.

W. F. Rishel, who in April will retire from his farm, has purchased the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Swabb at Farmers Mills and will occupy it at that time. Mr. and Mrs. Swabb have no definite plans as to where they will locate.

Gregg Falls Before E. P. V. in 32-21 Score

In a spirited basketball game Friday night, Millheim captured a contest from Gregg Twp. Vocational on the Millheim court and thereby moved within a half game of the league leading Snow Shoe team in the Centre-Clinton league.

In the preliminary game, the Gregg Township girls recorded their 13th straight victory of the season by downing the East Penn girls, 28 to 13.

The deep snow interfered with school attendance and business activities during the past week.

Former sheriff A. B. Lee is reported improved after a short illness.

A surprise birthday party was given on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Vonada in celebration for their daughter, Sara Vonada, who was the recipient of a very lovely cake and beautiful gifts. The evening was spent playing cards and at a late hour delicious refreshments were served.

Those present were Catherine Hosterman, Rosella Hettinger, Hazel Zettle, Evelyn Brooks, Mabel Eungard, Ann Mae Matthews, Lena Bressler, Josephine Stover, Relda Hagen, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Decker, Marion Auman of Coburn; Pearl Lingle and Vivian Havise of Millheim.

BOALSBURG

The young ladies' class of the Lutheran S. S. was entertained at the home of Miss Geraldine Meckley on Tuesday evening; assisting hostesses were Mrs. Woods and Mrs. Spotts.

Owing to the condition of the township roads the schools were closed several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hess and family of Shingletown were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hess.

Mrs. John Smith was admitted to the Centre County hospital on Thursday for observation.

Mrs. J. D. Patterson, who has been ill for several weeks, accompanied by her husband, her sister, Miss Margaret Kimpton, and Mrs. Nannie B. Corl, R. N., went to Philadelphia Monday where it is hoped Mrs. Patterson may obtain relief from her suffering at a city hospital.

The body of Mrs. Alice Woods Magoffin, for many years a resident of Boalsburg, was brought from the Presbyterian Church Home in Hollidaysburg for burial in the local cemetery on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Lucille Patterson, employed as a stenographer in Pittsburgh, spent several days last week at the home of her parents.

Mrs. H. L. Wink and daughter Barbara and son Howard will occupy an apartment in the home of Mrs. Ella Gingrich on Pine Street when they vacate the Reformed parsonage.

The second Lenten Prayer service of the Lutheran Missionary Society was held at 7:45 p. m. on Friday evening, February 23 at 7:45 p. m.

DOUBLE-HEADER BASKETBALL GAME, THIS (THURS.) EV'G

The Centre Hall Independent basketball team will play a doubleheader this (Thursday) evening, in the Centre Hall-Potter auditorium with two Altoona teams—the P. R. R. shop team and the Junior Mechanics team. With the former team is Bob Hornor, a former member of the Centre Hall team, who is a star performer and will give the local team plenty of concern.

The first game starts at 7:30 o'clock. Admission, 10 and 15 cents.

Physician Uses Sled

A sled was called into use Friday night by Dr. T. G. McQueen of Millburg, who had to reach the home of an expectant mother between Driesbach Church and Dice near Millburg. The doctor arrived in time to deliver a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. John Wright. The Millburg physician was unable to leave the main road with his car because of deep snow drifts, but a farmer and his sled were able to make the trip to the Wright home without mishap.

TUSSEYVILLE

Attorney W. G. Runkle is confined to the home due to illness.

James Farner had the misfortune to break several ribs in a fall at his home during the past week.
