

The Star & Sentinel.

Wednesday, June 5, 1867.

MR. STEVENS, THE PHILADELPHIA TELEGRAPH, AND COMPENSATION FOR DAMAGES.

The recent letter of Hon. THADDEUS STEVENS on Compensation has been printed in most of the leading papers...

Let the EVENING TELEGRAPH review its first Shalstead of the generation, to those enlightened sagacity, and indomitable purpose, and unflinching firmness...

One of the consequences of the union of the two papers, has been to require the new firm to carry out the advertising...

It may be that constipation will be necessary as a punishment for continued idleness. It may be that it will be needed to yet further humble the spirit of the late Rebels...

Thus, the Editor of the EVENING TELEGRAPH, by his own showing, is not opposed, in principle, to Constipation; and declares he will be for it if it is necessary...

But the EVENING TELEGRAPH protests that Constipation shall never be enforced to repay the Pennsylvania farmers for losses suffered years ago, and already once paid by the State.

IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO.

Published by the Telegraph-Philadelphia of the Capital Government of Mexico...

Washington, June 1.—The Navy Department has received information from Commodore F. A. Ray, of the United States steamer Teocayo, dated from Vera Cruz, Mexico...

New Orleans, May 31.—The city of Mexico has certainly capitulated. General O'Leary was shot there for correspondence with the Liberals.

It was rumored that Juarez had ordered the Maximilian to be shot. In his reply to the appeal for mercy, dispatched through Minister Campbell, Juarez's Minister clearly implies that the Emperor and his chiefs could not be regarded as lawful enemies.

The same thoughtful Convention has notified the people of the United States that they expect the Government thereof to pay for all the Slaves emancipated by the act of Congress...

The first election in Washington City in which the colored man has been admitted to his rights as a citizen took place on Monday.

The Jackson Mississippi of 15th May ferociously repudiates the Reconstruction act, under Mr. SHERMAN'S advice, and finally threatens that "rather than be massacred slaves of an armed militia, all the colored people of Mississippi will fight to the death."

PENNSYLVANIA RESERVES.

HARRISBURG, May 30.—The Pennsylvania Reserve Association held their first annual meeting this morning in the hall of the House of Representatives...

A committee was appointed to wait on Governor Geary, and invite him to be present. Soon after he appeared, and was greeted with enthusiastic applause.

The constitution proposed in January last by the board of directors was adopted with slight modifications. On motion, it was resolved to hold the next annual meeting of the association at Pittsburgh on May 20, 1868.

It was rumored that Juarez had ordered the Maximilian to be shot. In his reply to the appeal for mercy, dispatched through Minister Campbell, Juarez's Minister clearly implies that the Emperor and his chiefs could not be regarded as lawful enemies.

By the next steamer we shall probably learn the result of the election in the State of Virginia, and the result of the election in the State of Maryland.

The Reading papers announce the death of Mrs. Rosa C. Nicolls, wife of G. A. Nicolls, Esq., Superintendent of the Reading Railroad.

The first election in Washington City in which the colored man has been admitted to his rights as a citizen took place on Monday.

DIATH OF REV. DR. KRATZ.

We have the melancholy tidings of the death of Rev. Dr. Kratz, of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, which took place at his residence, in this place, on Thursday morning, the 29th inst.

Dr. Kratz was a man of great and varied learning—a profound scholar in the true sense of the word. He was a man of high moral and intellectual character, and a man of high social position.

Dr. Kratz was a man of great and varied learning—a profound scholar in the true sense of the word. He was a man of high moral and intellectual character, and a man of high social position.

Dr. Kratz was a man of great and varied learning—a profound scholar in the true sense of the word. He was a man of high moral and intellectual character, and a man of high social position.

Dr. Kratz was a man of great and varied learning—a profound scholar in the true sense of the word. He was a man of high moral and intellectual character, and a man of high social position.

Dr. Kratz was a man of great and varied learning—a profound scholar in the true sense of the word. He was a man of high moral and intellectual character, and a man of high social position.

Dr. Kratz was a man of great and varied learning—a profound scholar in the true sense of the word. He was a man of high moral and intellectual character, and a man of high social position.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE COLLEGE FACULTY.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God to remove to his rest in Heaven Rev. Dr. Kratz, of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, which took place at his residence, in this place, on Thursday morning, the 29th inst.

Resolved, That in our grief we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well, and gratefully recognize the services of Dr. Kratz, who has left behind him a noble and useful life.

Resolved, That we express our sincere sympathy with the bereaved family, and pray for the consolation of their grief.

Resolved, That we express our sincere sympathy with the bereaved family, and pray for the consolation of their grief.

Resolved, That we express our sincere sympathy with the bereaved family, and pray for the consolation of their grief.

Resolved, That we express our sincere sympathy with the bereaved family, and pray for the consolation of their grief.

Resolved, That we express our sincere sympathy with the bereaved family, and pray for the consolation of their grief.

COMPENSATION FOR DAMAGES.

THADDEUS STEVENS has issued the following interesting paper, entitled "Compensation for Damages," which he has published in his possession to Mr. STEVENS.

As I am about to present the matter for consideration at the next session of Congress, I desire to ascertain certain facts, and to express my views thereon.

As I am about to present the matter for consideration at the next session of Congress, I desire to ascertain certain facts, and to express my views thereon.

As I am about to present the matter for consideration at the next session of Congress, I desire to ascertain certain facts, and to express my views thereon.

As I am about to present the matter for consideration at the next session of Congress, I desire to ascertain certain facts, and to express my views thereon.

As I am about to present the matter for consideration at the next session of Congress, I desire to ascertain certain facts, and to express my views thereon.

As I am about to present the matter for consideration at the next session of Congress, I desire to ascertain certain facts, and to express my views thereon.

SAD AND SUDDEN DEATH.

Our community was shocked on Saturday last by the death of Miss PAXTON, a native of this place, and daughter of Associate Judge W. W. PAXTON, now residing in the former place.

She was a young lady of fine talents, and a devoted friend of the cause of the oppressed. Her death was a great loss to her family and to the community.

She was a young lady of fine talents, and a devoted friend of the cause of the oppressed. Her death was a great loss to her family and to the community.

She was a young lady of fine talents, and a devoted friend of the cause of the oppressed. Her death was a great loss to her family and to the community.

She was a young lady of fine talents, and a devoted friend of the cause of the oppressed. Her death was a great loss to her family and to the community.

She was a young lady of fine talents, and a devoted friend of the cause of the oppressed. Her death was a great loss to her family and to the community.

She was a young lady of fine talents, and a devoted friend of the cause of the oppressed. Her death was a great loss to her family and to the community.

EDITOR'S BOOK TABLE.

HARRIS'S MAGAZINE for June, containing articles on the late rebellion, the condition of the South, and the prospects of the future.

HARRIS'S MAGAZINE for June, containing articles on the late rebellion, the condition of the South, and the prospects of the future.

HARRIS'S MAGAZINE for June, containing articles on the late rebellion, the condition of the South, and the prospects of the future.

HARRIS'S MAGAZINE for June, containing articles on the late rebellion, the condition of the South, and the prospects of the future.

HARRIS'S MAGAZINE for June, containing articles on the late rebellion, the condition of the South, and the prospects of the future.

HARRIS'S MAGAZINE for June, containing articles on the late rebellion, the condition of the South, and the prospects of the future.

HARRIS'S MAGAZINE for June, containing articles on the late rebellion, the condition of the South, and the prospects of the future.

THE TRIUMPH OF CLOTH.

The Triumph of Cloth, a new and interesting work, published by the American Cloth Company, containing a full and complete history of the cloth trade in America.

The Triumph of Cloth, a new and interesting work, published by the American Cloth Company, containing a full and complete history of the cloth trade in America.

The Triumph of Cloth, a new and interesting work, published by the American Cloth Company, containing a full and complete history of the cloth trade in America.

The Triumph of Cloth, a new and interesting work, published by the American Cloth Company, containing a full and complete history of the cloth trade in America.

The Triumph of Cloth, a new and interesting work, published by the American Cloth Company, containing a full and complete history of the cloth trade in America.

The Triumph of Cloth, a new and interesting work, published by the American Cloth Company, containing a full and complete history of the cloth trade in America.

The Triumph of Cloth, a new and interesting work, published by the American Cloth Company, containing a full and complete history of the cloth trade in America.