REMOVAL!

THE GETTYSBURG SKYLIGHT GALLERY.

THE undersigned takes pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Gettysburg and the public generally that he has removed from his old rooms on West Middle street, to Baltimore street and nearly opposite the store of Fahnestock Brothers. The room he now occupies, has been recently fitted up expressly for his business. The location is an admirable one, enabling him to take pictures in all shades of weather, and with a promptness unequalled any where else,

LIFE-LIKE PHOTOGRAPHS,

of every size and description, executed in the finest style. particular attention given to the CARTE-DE-VISITE, and in copying AMBROTYPES and DAGUERREOTYPES of deceased friends. Also—a new style of picture which has become very popular with the public, not only for their beauty, but for cheapness and convenience. SIXTEEN for ONE DOLLAR only. Also—THE PORCELAIN PICTURES, which for their beauty and durability are unsurpassed.

THE GETTYSBURG GEMS,

We are prepared to carry on the business in all its various branches, and having had considerable experience we run no risk in

GIVING SATISFACTION, OR REFUNDING PEOPLE'S MONEY.

Our facilities for a full display of our skill are unequalled by any other Gallery in the County, and we would therefore invite every one to call at the

YOUR MISSION.

If you can not on the ocean
Sail among the swiftest fleet,
Rocking on the highest billows,
Laughing at the storm you meet;
You can stand among the sailors,
Anchored yet within the bay,
You can lend a hand to help them
As they launch their boat away.

If you are too weak to journey
Up the mountain, steep and high,
You can stand within the valley
While the multitudes go by;
You can chant in happy measure,
As they slowly pass along;
Though they may forget the singer,
They will not forget the song.

If you have not gold and silver
Ever ready to command,
If you can not to the needy
Reach an ever open hand;
You can visit the afflicted,
O'er the erring you can weep,
You can be a true disciple
Sitting at the Savior's feet.

If you can not in the harvest
Garner up the richest sheaves,
Many a grain, both ripe and golden,
Will the careless reapers leave;
Go and glean among the briers,
Growing rank against the wall,
For it may be that their shadow
Hides the heaviest wheat of all.

If you can, not in the conflict
Prove yourself a soldier true—
If, where fire and smoke are thickest,
There's no work for you to do;
When the battle-field is silent,
You can go with careful tread,
You can bear away the wounded,
You can cover up the dead.

Do not, then, stand idly waiting
For some greater work to do;
Fortune is a lazy Goddess—
She will never come to you.
Go into the harvest fields,
Gather up the golden grain,
If you want a field of labor,
You can find it anywhere.

"NO ONE LIKE A MOTHER."

A poor old woman lay upon her sick bed in a close uncomfortable room, with a daughter and little grandchild to take care of her. But whom do you think this aged woman called for all the time, and longed to have come and nurse her? It was "mother" that poor mother. "O, there's nobody like a mother," she said, to care of you when sick," she said. A person present asked how long her mother had been dead.

"About my age," was the reply, "and I was fourteen."

"Do you think that you will remember your mother's loving care so long?" "O, dear, you will never forget her. You may think but little of it now, but you will think a great deal of it then. This woman's children had all grown up around her, and left her, or she died. Now, we that were of years to do for her when we could, left her mother's side. It was natural, indeed, for we soon took to ourselves husbands and wives, and loved them, and had children, and loved them, and they, in turn, left us, and loved others. And so it is with all. Just as we have left our mothers, so will our children leave us. But we can not help it. It is natural. We can not help it. It is natural. We can not help it. It is natural. We
