AT Dayton, Ohio, 75 invalid soldiers, inmates of a Soldiers' Home, were taken to the polls to vote for Gen. HAYES to a Anan. They were all crippled and helpless, but the Democratic crowd was cowardly enough to insult them with coarse epithets, while some yelled: "Pity you hadn't lost both your d -d arms." "Sorry that the other leg was left." "Pity the rebels hadn't killed you."

A Copperhead paper says:

that the State has been so districted, legislatively, that they have not carried the legislature. They forget how shamethey "gerrymandered" the State when they had power; and how unserupulously they wielded every agency to keep themselves in the majority. They succeeded-until their sympathy with the Rebels aroused the people, and sdrove them into a minority. The existing apportionment is a fair one. The real lesson of the Election is, that the "Democratic" egialdite candidates didn't run as well ther State Ticket. But if it were otherwise the politicians of the "democratic" have no right to complain of being ged to take the medicine they, formerly, mercilessly force I on their adver-

THE New York World calls the "De Moerats" the "true Union men." Why, then, do the Southern "Democrats" vote to a man against re-construction and reunion? And why do the Northern "DEmocrats" urge them to this course? The only true Union men are the mer who are in favor of restoring the Union at the earliest moment, and in the best mode to-guard the country against a possible repetidon of Rebellion. These men
