The other grounds of impeachment are the corrupt and unconstitutional abuse of the veto ower: the abuse of the pardoning power: the surrender of property to rebels ; the disregard of the right of the property of refugees and freedmen, and of the United States, and the unconstitutional and corrupt exercise of the appointing power. Under the latter head, a vast amount of testimony has bech taken relative to the suspension and appointing of civofficers, and the cause therefor, in direct violation of the law.
