WE notice that the Copperhead press, in aunouncing the defeat of the Repub-lican candidate for Mayor in Pittsburg, give it as "another Democratic victory." It is thus they delude and bolster up the courage of their adherents. The truth is the result of the municipal election in Pittsburg has no political significance at all. 'It turned purely on local issues-BLACKMORE, the Reform candidate, who was supported by the Working-men's association, heating RIDDELL, the regular Republican nominee. All that the "Demodrata! had to do with it, is that they cast their votes for BLACKMORE, and thus helped the Republican Beformers and Working men to defeat RIDDELL, But it wouldn't do to tell the whole story.

The call for the Republican National Con vention has the true ring, and states the issues clearly.
