the nation's life. Some of the Copperhead papers, alarmour Union heroes dead and living, are pitching into him pretty lively, and denying that his paper is an exponent of "Democratic" policy. And yet BRICK POMEROY's paper to-day is the most popular "Democratic" journal in the land, and accepted by the masses of that party as a faithful exponent of the Rebel sentiments which the Copperhead presses in days past have instilled into the breasts of their readers. The trouble is, that while the Copperhead leaders seek to ignore the past, and would now assume the role of Unionists, BRICE POMEROY, with less hypocrisy and more honesty, stands by the teachings of his party, and boldly avows his faith—even if it be treasonable. That's what's the matter. If BRICK Pomeroy's ribald and treasonable ufterances be not acceptable "Democratic' teachings how comes it that his paper has more subscribers and readers in Adjournal—the Compiler alone excepted?

This is what quickly set up to practically enslave the negroes, have all been overthrown, never are now learning. May it do them good again to be ended. A copperhead triumph might endanger the liberty of the Slaves; but nothing less than a successful revolution can destroy it, now that it has been solemnly proclaimed, and definitely determined.

JEFF. Davis has gone South expecting to spend the winter in Mississippi.— He had a cordial greeting from the Rebels of Maryland, by whom he was feasted and flattered. The Baltimore Gazettethe Copperhead State organ—gives a touching account of his departure. Hundreds of the "Becesh" crowded the wharf, and gave him three hearty cheers as he neared the gangway of the boat. One of the young ladies, on seizing DAVIS'S outstretched hand, sprang to his arms and kissed him, to the jealousy of all the young Rebels; and soon the boat started command of the Military District comprising Georgia, Alabama, and Florida, is another indication of the PRESIDENT's relentless purpose to defeat the restoration of the Rebel States. In Alabama, the Constitution has been formed, and is nending at an election soon to be held; the Convention of Georgia is in session; that of Florida has been chosen and will soon meet. It is necessary to the Copperhead programme that there three States be prevented from re-organizing under the Congressional plan; for, i once admitted, how are they to be got rid of? Military interference is to be invoked to prevent the adoption of the new Constitutions, no matter what their merits; and Pope's removal, and SWAYNE'S. is rendered indispensable. Loyal men are to be put down; Rebels are to be put up : and the whole South handed over to lawlessness, crime, and disorder. Should this come, the Republicans will be guiltless, for they have earnestly striven to restore the civil law, at the earliest possible moment. The Copperheads are the Obstructionists and Disunionists.
