inore heartly than myself. I confess (and I do it without shame) that I have been educawalls by the great events, of the war. The American people have been educated rapidly and the man who says he has learned nothing, that he stands now where he did six years ago, is like an ancient mile post by the side of a descried highway. We, Mr. President Have with need step by step. When this war, began we did not contemplate the destruction of elayery. I remember well when the Crittenden resolution was passed, declaring that the war was not prosecuted for conquest or to everturn the institutions of any State. I know that that was intended as an assurance that slavery should not be destroyed, and it re-ceived the vote, I believe, of every Republican member in both houses of Congress; but in a few months after that time it was found y the events of the was that we could not preserve slavely and suppress the rebellion, and we must destroy blavery—not prosecute ry to prosecute the war. Which was the better? To stand by the resolution and let the GROCERY DELAINES, resolution go? Congress could not stand by that pledge, and it was amore honored in the than the cheergange " Mr. Lincoln issued his proclemation of emancipation, set-ting free the slaves of the rebels. It was dictated by the stern and bloody experience of s the times. Mr. Lincoln had no choice left him. When we began this contest no one thought we would use tolored soldiers in the war: The distinguished Senator sitting by me here (Mr. Cameron), when in the winter of 1861 he first brought forward the proposi-. tion, as Secretary of War, to use colored soldiers was greatly in advance of public opinion; and was thought to be visionary; but as the war progressed it became manifest to all intelligent men that we must not only destroy slavery but we must avail ourselves of every instrumentality in our power for the surpose of putting down the sebellion, and the whole sountry accorded in the use of colored soldiers, and gallant and glorious service they rendered. In 1864 a proposition was brought forward in this body to amend the Constitudon of the United States by aboliahing slave- Sugars, Coffees, Molasses, THE TY ME do not think that this is very radical now, but it was very radical then; it was the great measure of the age, and almost of mod-

It required but one condition or guaranty on the part of the South, and that was that they should put in their constitutions a provision prohibiting slavery it required no other resentation; no security against rebel debts or against payment for emancipated slaves and it confined the right of suffrage to white min. But it was thought to bota great step HAVING opened a Grocery, Flour in advance at the time; and so it was; but events were passing rapidly, and in 1865 the President came forward with his proposition. and I am stating what is true from an examination of the documents when I say that, but for want of power with the President, his scheme in itself considered was far more radevents were rapidly teaching the statesmen of the time that we could not reconstruct upon that basis.

It has been dictated by the logic of events. It overrides all arguments, overrides all prejudices, overrides all theory, in the presence of the necessity for preserving the life of this has tion :- and if future events shall determine That we must go further, I for one am prepared to say that I will go as far as shall be necessary to the execution of this guaranty, the reconstruction of this Republic upon a right basis, and the successful restoration of every part of this Union. CONCLUSION. Mr. President, the column of reconstruction, as I before remarked, has risem slowly. It has not been hewn from a single stone. It composed of many blocks, painfully laid un and put together, and cemented by the tears and blood of the nation. Sir, we have done nothing for punishment -ave; too fittle for punishment. Justice has not had her de-manda. Not a man has yet been executed for this great treason. The arch fiend himself is now at liberty upon bail. No man is to be punished hill now, while punishment has gold by, as we all know, we are insisting only upon security for the future. We are simply asking that the evil spirits who, brought this war upon us shall not again come into power during this generation, again to bring upon us rebellion and calamity. We are simply asking for those securities that we deem

ARRANDALE & CO'S GREAT WATCH CLUB.

I VERYBODY needs a good watch, and wishes to get it at the lowest possible price; a horde of swindlers knowing this have contrived various ingenious devices to get people's money, and then either fail to send a watch, or send one that is worthless as a time-keeper. ARRANDALE & CO, have now perfected arrangements by which, for the small sum of $10, a good and reliable watch may be surranker obtained. They have formeds GREAT WATCH CLUB on the following plan. Certificates containing the numbers of all the watches named in our wholesale list (which is sent to all applicants) are mixed up, enclosed in envelopes, and sold for 25 cents each.—Brety certificate is warranten to be for a watch, and as will be seen on reference to the list, none are of less value than Ten Dollars, whilst some are worth $300.—We undertake to send any watch drawn whatever may be its value for $10, and in order that every one may absolutely depend upon getting a first class time-keeper, we guarantee that every purchaser of One Dollar's worth of certificates shall receive at least one fer watch No. 533 on our wholesale list, sent pest free, which is a first-class pattent lever, a handsome and reliable watch, in terling silver hunting case, and usually sold for $40. You will certainly get such a watch; and, besides, you may get a Gold Chronometer worth $500. We sell the certificates as follows: One for 25 cents; Three for 50 cents; Six for $1; and Twenty for $3. To those sending $3, we will send a handsome chain graits.
