1864 ; but the Copperheads in 1867 wiped it out. Thus. the Southern States, under Copperhead leadership, are getting back to the old secession ground they all ocupled before the War.

In the light of such facts, it is pertinent to inquire whether anything has been settled by the War, and if so what, if not this doctrine of paramount allegiance to the government of the Union?

JUDGE WOODWARD threatens the National Banks that they shall be blotted out if they don't throw their influence in part; and they are its natural enemies, into the club. Be discret and careful in apbecause the Banks help to keep up the credit of the nation. As they were pow-erless to prevent the creation of the sys-ten, they will be powerless to destroy it because the Banks help to keep up the tem, they will be powerless to destroy it for the men who saved the country are the men who are to rule it. Judge WOODWARD tried to stop the War by stopping the draft, but the draft NEWSPAPER. went on, and the War ended in glorious victory. He also tried to stop the War tee.

by declaring illegal the greenback currency of the country; but the currency was sustained and the country by it .--The Judge is after a third victim for his rage, and has selected the Banks. But they have weathered heavier storms than he can raise.

THE Copperhead press have long found the nen's Burean a splendid subject for by them that the expense of the bureau ex-ceeds twenty millions a year. These reckless calumnistors will be taken aback somewhat when they learn that General Howard offi-cially reports the cost of the Freedmen's Bueau, from January 1, 1865; to January 868, as follows : From appropriations by Congress......

On the organization of the bureau, May 15 1865, is was necessary to assume the ac-counts of the Department of Negro Affairs from January 1, 1865. Therefore, with this allowance, and the further deduction of $850,-000 to relieve white destitution, the legitimate expenses of the bureau have been only $3,-847,854. This sum, remember, is for the 847,854. This sum, remember, is for the period of two years and eight months, or an average of two millions a year gross expen-ses. The assistance the Bureau has been to the freed people in obtaining them employ-ment, in securing them justice, in defending their rights against murderous, vengeful ene-mics, and in relieving the wants of the staryng whites as well as blacks, is incalculable its services have been worth vastly nore than even the exaggerated expense alleged by the Copperheads. Only the heart of a demon would impel men to maliciously slander the good works of that bureau, which will re-main to attest their beneficence long after Copperheadism has gone to its grave, - Chicage Tribune.
