Hoofland's German Bitters,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

Hoofland's German Bitters

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathising as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skilfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

PREPARED BY Dr. C. M. JACKSON,

PHILADELPHIA, PA

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,

Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, etc.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. These, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Penna., writes:

Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.

"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours, truly,

GEO. W. WOODWARD."

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, April 28, 1868.

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, I can certify this from my experience of it.

Yours, with respect,

JAMES THOMPSON."

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates st.

FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL,

Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.

Yours, truly,

E. D. FENDALL.

DRINK WATER.

Drink, drink, drink,
Drink from the sparkling rill,
That gushes from the mountain,
That rushes down the hill.

Drink, drink, drink,
Drink and fear no guile,
There is health in every drop,
And naught that can defile.

Then drink, drink, drink,
And fear not for the morrow,
It brings no sleepless nights,
No dread heart-breaking sorrow.

It brings no specters dim,
To dance around thy pillow,
No consciousness within,
Of wrong done to thy fellow.

No dark and blighting care
Will it bring to thee or thine,
But sun-light, bright and fair,
Will e'er around thee shine.

As long as thou dost shun
The Demon of the still,
And drink and quench thy thirst,
At the life-giving rill. J. S. G.

WANTING FRIENDS.—"I wish that I had some good friends to help me on in life?" cried idle Dennis with a yawn.

"Good friends! Why, you have ten!" replied his master.

"I'm sure I haven't half so many; and those I have are too poor to help me."

"Count your fingers, my boy," said his master.

Dennis looked at his large, strong hands.

"Count thumbs and all," added the master.

"I have; there are ten," said the lad.

"Then never say you have not got ten good friends, able to help you on in life. Try what those true friends can do, before you begin grumbling and fretting because you do not get help from others."

THE Manchester Guardian relates that Mr. Thornton, the British minister to Washington, on the eve of his departure for America, met an American gentleman, whom he did not recognize as a member of the Republican party, and to whom he praised Mr. Johnson highly for his administrative vigor and skill. Finding no response, he modified his tone and said: "At all events, all must admit that he does wonders for an entirely self-made man." "It may be so," was the rejoinder; "but, if he be self-made, I will say that it relieves God Almighty of a grave responsibility."

A CLERGYMAN, while sitting on the gallery of the Connecticut legislature, when that body was putting through divorce cases wrote impromptu:

"For cut-ting all connect-ions famed
Connect-I-cut is fairly named;
I twain connect in one, but you
Cut those whom I connect in two.
Each legislator seems to say,
'What you connect-I-cut away.'"

THE following may be set down as one of the best jokes of the season:

Baptist Brother—I don't like your church government. It isn't simple enough. There's too much machinery about it.

Methodist Brother—It is true, we have more machinery than you; but then, you see it don't take near so much water to run it.

A CERTAIN cockney, overcome by his sensibilities, fainted at the grave of his fourth spouse. "What shall we do with him?" asked a perplexed friend of his. "Let him alone," said a waggish by-stander; "he'll soon revive."

A BEREAVED widower, when called upon for an epitaph on his wife's tombstone, said he didn't want any "sanguinary" expressions cut on the marble.

TWELVE WAYS OF COMMITTING SUICIDE.

A MEDICAL contemporary thus enumerates the fashionable mode of doing it:

1. Wearing of thin shoes and cotton stockings on damp nights and in cool, rainy weather. Wearing insufficient clothing, and especially upon the limbs and extremities.

2. Leading a life of enfeebling, stupid laziness, and keeping the mind in an unnatural state of excitement by reading trashy novels. Going to theaters, parties, and balls in all sorts of weather, in the thinnest possible dress. Dancing till in a complete perspiration, and then going home without sufficient overgarments, through the cool, damp night air.

3. Sleeping on feather beds in seven-by-nine bed-rooms, without ventilation at the top of the windows, and especially with two or more persons in the same small, unventilated bed-room.

4. Surfeiting on hot and very stimulating dinners. Eating in a hurry, without half masticating the food, and eating heartily before going to bed, when the mind and body are exhausted by the toils of the day and the excitement of the evening.

5. Beginning in childhood on tea and coffee, and going from one step to another, through chewing and smoking tobacco and drinking intoxicating liquors; by personal abuse, and physical and mental excesses of other descriptions.

6. Marrying in haste and getting an uncongenial companion, and living the remainder of life in mental dissatisfaction; cultivating jealousies and domestic broils, and being always in a mental ferment.

7. Keeping children quiet by giving paregoric and cordials, by teaching them to suck candy, and by supplying them with raisins, nuts, and rich cake; when they are sick by giving them mercury, tartar emetic, arsenic, under the mistaken notion that they are medicines and not irritant poisons.

8. Allowing the love of gain to absorb our minds, so as to leave no time to attend to our health; following an unhealthy occupation because money can be made by it.

9. Tempting the appetite with bitters and nicties when the stomach says No, and by forcing food into it when nature does not demand, and even rejects it; gormandizing between meals.

10. Contriving to keep in a continual worry about something or nothing; giving way to fits of anger.

11. Being irregular in all our habits of sleeping and eating; going to bed at midnight and getting up at noon; eating too much; too many kinds of food, and that which is too highly seasoned.

12. Neglecting to take proper care of ourselves, and not apply early for medical advice when disease first appears; taking celebrated quack medicines to a degree of making a drug-shop of the body.

The above causes produce more sickness, suffering, and death than all epidemics, malaria, and contagion, combined with war, pestilence, and famine. Nearly all who have attained to old age have been remarkable for equanimity of temper, correct habits of diet, drink, and rest—for temperance, cheerfulness, morality. Physical punishment is sure to visit the transgressor of nature's laws.—All commit suicide and cut off many years of their natural life who did not observe the means of preventing disease and perserving health.

PROF. S of Dickinson College, is not much given to joking. Occasionally, however, this vein of his disposition is excited, and then his hits are of the hardest kind, and double-edged. One morning not long ago, he found a horse in the recitation-room. The class had collected, and with solemn countenance awaited the entrance of the professor. He came in, looked around deliberately, first upon the horse, then upon the class, and remarked, at the same time twitching his shirt-collar: "Ahem! You have got a new classmate, I see. I'm glad it's a horse; there were jackasses enough before."—College Courant.

THE pastor of a popular church at the South End, on Sabbath evening, at the Sunday-school concert, said, "Boys, when I heard your beautiful songs to-night, I had hard work to keep my feet still; what do you suppose is the trouble with them?" "Chilblains, sir," cried out a little six-year-old boy, which, notwithstanding the solemnity of the occasion, set the whole audience in a roar. It is dangerous to question children in public.—Boston Traveller.

A TEACHER asked a bright little girl, "What country was opposite us on the globe?" "Don't know, sir," was her answer.—"Well, now," pursued the teacher, "if I were to bore a hole through the earth, and you were to go in at this end, where would you come out?" "Out of the hole, sir," replied the pupil, with an air of triumph.

THE Charleston Mercury cries out against the new constitution of South Carolina because it proves no law against the intermarriage of whites and blacks. Poor chivalry! Will somebody make the necessary law forthwith, lest the editor of The Mercury and his white friends should rush off to the rice-swamp and marry negro wives!

A PETITE, blue-eyed maidod, who was nursing her fifth Christmas doll, and listening to her mother and some female friends talking about domestic broils and Chicago divorces, created a sensation by remarking: "Well ma, I'm never going to marry! I'm going to be a widow!"

"I WISH I could prevail on neighbor Rinder to keep the Sabbath," said good old Mr. Jones. "I will tell you how to do it!" exclaimed young Smith. "Get somebody to lend it to him, and I'll be bound if he don't keep it. He never was known to return anything he borrowed."

A STUPID fellow tried to annoy a popular preacher by asking him whether the fatted calf of the parable was male or female. "Female, to be sure," was the reply; "for I see the male"—looking his questioner full in the face—"yet alive in the flesh before me."

A SABBATH-SCHOOL superintendent asked his scholars if any of them could quote a passage of Scripture which forbade a man's having two wives; whereupon nearly the whole school cried out, "No man can ever serve two masters."

ONE of the audience assembled to hear the arguments before an important committee of the assembly at Albany, last week, said that the members of the committee looked as though they had a bias in their minds. "If all depends," answered another, "whether you spell it bias or bayus."

A GENTLEMAN who wanted to make a speech to a Sunday-school thought he would adopt the colloquial style, and this is what happened: "Now, boys, what does white wash when he goes hating?" A shrill voice in the crowd went direct to the point with, "Want's a bite."

THE HUMAN VOICE.

The human voice, when its utterances are clearly articulated, and it is supplied with good lungs, will fill 400,000 cubic feet of air, provided they be inclosed in a proper manner, and the voice placed and directed advantageously. This space, we may remark, by the way, would be represented by a half 125 feet long by 80 feet wide and forty feet high. The same voice singing, can fill with equal facility 600,000 cubic feet.

When singing, the vowels are principally used, because it is necessary to dwell upon a note, and we cannot prolong a consonant. In speaking, on the contrary, we depend for articulation on the consonants, but their short percussive sound does not travel. When we shout, or in open air speaking, which partakes of shouting, we prolong the vowels, drawing the syllable at each word, but what we gain in sound is lost in clearness of articulation; expression is lost in monotony; because its fineness depends on the infinite variety of which the consonant is capable and bestows on the vowel. Two thousand voices, singing or speaking together, travel no further than one voice. They may fill a certain area more completely with that intricacy of waves which, when very troublesome, we call a din, but each voice exerts its own influence on the air according to its power, and dies away
