VALUATION OF BANK STOCK,-Judge Fahs of York, the Assessor appointed by Gov. GEARY to assess the Bank stock in this county, for purposes of taxation, has made a value $100.)

NEW POST OFFICE,-The Post Master General has established a Post Office in Menallen township, to be known as Wenks and appointed William S. Cart, Esq., Post Master. A recent act of Congress established a new route from York Springs to Wenks, via Idaville-upon which we presuire service will soon be put.

MEDICAL.-At the meeting of the Hom coopathic Medical State Society, in Harrisburg, on the 12th, we observe that Dr. J. H. MARSDEN of York Springs was chosen one of the Board of Censors for the ensuing year. Gettysburg was proposed "on account of its historic interest." as the next place of meeting; but WILKESBARRE was finally selected. SUPREME COURT. - On Monday last, the Supreme Court disposed of the following cases:

Harner vs. Fisher, Adams county, Judgment affirmed. Cumberland Mutual Protection Insurance Company vs. Douglas et al. [This is the Caledonia Spring case.] Adams county. Judgment affirmed.

WATER COMPANY .- The following of ficers were elected on Saturday last for the ensuing year:

Mil-LER, of Mountpleasant township, has left with us a box of Dr. Burton's "Tobacco Antidote," which is represented to be an infallible remedy for persons addicted to the use of the weed, and who desire to give it up .-We hear it highly spoken of by gentlemen who have tested its virtues. It is a harmless preparation, and acts as a tonic and restorative. Capt. MILLER is the Agent for SHAMEFUL.-Democracy and Whiskey seem to flourish in Mountpleasant. We are informed that at a recent public sale in that intensely Democratic district. Whiskey was publicly sold and profusely dispensed to the crowd. Drunkenness of course ensued -Among others, two women, (one married, the other single.) became beastly drunkone of them shamelessly denuding herself of her clothing in the presence of the gaping crowd, and both so helpless that it became

IMPROVEMENTS IN BRAGTOWN NEIGHBORHOOD.—A Fairbank's Hay Scale has been erected at Bragfown, which will prove a great convenience to the neighborhood. Adam Hollinger is erecting a fine bank barn, 37 x 46, and expects to finish it in a few weeks. John Hummer is building a large barn. Samuel Harbold is building a fine brick residence on his farm. - Michael Bosser, Esq., is also putting up a frame residence on his farm.-There are several other improvements in the neighborhood, but on the York county side of the line. Samuel Mummert, near East Berlin is building a large Bank barn.

RAILROAD AUDIT .- At the hearing before J. C. NEELY, Esq., on Friday last, in the Gettysburg Railroad case, Messrs. NORTH and McConaughy appeared as counsel for CALEB S. MALTBY, of New Haven, who holds Bonds of the company to the amount of $112,-000, and claims to take pro-rata share in the distribution of funds in hands of the Sequestrator. R. G. McCREARY, Esq., D. WILLS and others, counsel of bona-fide bond-hold ers, objected that the bonds presented by Mr. MALTBY were really the property of the Company, having been redeemed from hypothecation by Mr. Case, President of the Company, and could not come in on the fund. After taking some testimony, the audit was adjourned to Tuesday, June 2.

RUNAWAYS .- On Saturday last while Mr. John Brough of East Berlin was repairing tences on his farm, he left his fine four-horse team standing in the road, hitched to a wagon loaded with rails. One of the horses slipped his bridle, and started to run, taking with him the team at full speed .-They were stopped near Hildebrand's tanyard at the Berlin bridge. Two of the horses fell, and one of them was much injured. . As DANIEL SMITH of Latimore township was taking his horses, on Monday of last week, out to plough, they ran off. After being caught, he undertook to ride one and lead the other home; and when at full speed, deep sympathies of his neighbors.

CUMBERLAND.—Carlisle Herald says that during the bombardment of Carlisle by Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, in 1863, a conical shell struck the house of William Bentz, but did not explode. This missile, after having been preserved as a memento for several years, was thrown aside, and ultimately found its way into the coal bin. On Monday last, the shell, without being observed was shoveled into a bucket of coal and thence carried to the cook stove where the contents of the bucket were thrown upon the fire. PO the Court of Quarter Sessions To the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Prace in and for the county of Adams:

The Grand Inquest, inquiring within and for the said county of Adams, beg leave to report. That they have visited the Public Buill ngs of the county—that they are able to report favorably of the county—that they are able to report favorably of the county—that they are able to report favorably of the county—that they finding it in good order.

That the same can be said of the Alma House, except as to the spartments assigned to the insane, the cells in the insane beginsia being damp and numbrone, calculated to thwart the efforts and services of the Physician and the Steward and his family in behalf of these unfortunates, and we would earnestly recommend that more suitable accommodations be provided for them.

We would add that we found one of the furpaces in bad order—in fact, worn our, and report favorably with regard to the contemplated improvement, viz., placing a new one in its place, whenever it may said the coursenience of the officers having the matter in charge.

AVING had considerable experiin the last few years. I have made it a point to after ac machine to the farmer that will not when thoroughly maked wive general satisfaction, and hence have the last of the farmer than will not when thoroughly maked wive general satisfaction, and hence have the last of the farmer than the contract of the farmer than the agency for all but what I regard the very best in the market. I now offer to the Larmer the caming item son, two of what I consider the best machine is in use, Last a saon I soid threty-five of the OHF) & BUCKEYE Patent which have given entire satisfaction. As machine has been returned, neither has there been any difficulty with any one to whom they were sold—all new-ing for their machines proposite. Jacob Raffensperger, Jacob Finler, William Wert, Jr., lewton Horner,

Joseph Gelbangh,
Joseph Calbertson,
George Hushey,
Daniel March, Daniel Merch,

This machine has been awarded medals and first Prenium by the Pennsylvania. Lowa and New York Seate Fairs, and by hundreds of County Fairs in all parts of the country, including the Adams County Fairs, having received the first Premium at Benderaulie in the fail of Red, and at Gettysurg in 1807, as the best on exhibi-From and at destypourg in 1807, as the best on exhibition.

This machine has not with the most complete success, in every section where it has been introduced, it has maked as first class. In compactness, lightness of draft, excellence over machines which have bestefore excellence and elegance of workmanships and fisials, combined with great strongth and adoptation to all tands of work it will sure as any machine heretofore offered to the farmer. The Belifiche on this machine has been considerably improved in the last Beason, and fewer ranted to give general satisfaction or mo en.e.

THE WORLD'S MOWER AND TRADERS

THE WORLD'S MOWER AND REAPER, This is an entire new machine, but judging from its construction and the testimon labs it has received, it will be the leading machine. The gearing he set out of solid Iron, making overy which and con eract, fitting up close, and running as true as a clock, which makes the machine much lighter of dr. it, and no catting de cage or wear. The gearing is all closed in a right case the ame as a watch, entirely excluding water, dirt, or great, and indeed preventing everything that is calculated to prove injurious to the machinery. To dit, you simply open the injurious to the machinery. To dit, you simply open the meaning and can in the same way, and when once tightened down—there is an danger of working loose, as in the case with other machines. The Company do not heattate in saying that this machine, with proper care, will last a man a life time, which is a mister every farmer should lake into consideration, before theying at e present high prices of machine
