GRANT AND COLFAX.

We gladly fling our flag to the breeze illuminated as it is by the names of the wisest; purest and greatest of American citizens. As a ticket, it challenges the respect even of enemies, and will arouse the hearty co-operation of all friends .-It embraces the two most eminent of all their cotemporaries - GRANT, first in War, COLFAX, first in Peace.

This ticket will be invincible : and the joint administration of these chosen real views. champions and representatives of undedefiled Republicanism will bring repose to the nation, supremacy to our principles, and lasting power to the great orranization which saved the nation from threatened overthrow, and whose principles alone can effectively secure the benefits fairly won in that fierce and dreadful struggle. The Convention has made the wisest possible selection of standard-bearers; and has opened the campaign auspiciously. Both are in the prime of life. Each has a personal and public record without | re-act against the hypocrite and his oba stain. So, defying our foes, we tell jects. them that the Republican Party intend to "RE-POSSESS" the government filched from them by Johnson's perfidy; and that GRANT shall be the next President, and COLFAX the next Vice-President of and of the innate wisdom of his acts, would,

Senator TRUMBULL was very active in getting up a project to prevent JOHNSON from removing deserving offi-cials. He prepared several propositions, all of which were lost. The next year, the Civil Tenure Act was passed, but, as Senator TRUMBULL did not draw it. he of course finds it very imperfect! In the debate on his propositions in April and May 1866, Mr. TRUMBULL made this declaration of opinion : "I deny that if a vacancy exists in any

SETTLED AT LAST.-The long disputed nucstion with the Sewing Machine fraternity, as to which is the best machine, has at last been definitely disposed of and set at rest by the unexpected appearance among them of that wonderful family machine, known as the "American Combination Button Hole and left its competitors the question to settle among themselves as to which is the next best. In this secondary question the public will feel but little interest so long as they can be supplied with the "latest and best" and also the chespest in the market. Another gratifying circumstance connected with this master-piece of mechanism is the fact that it is entirely the product of the inventive genius
