On February 1867, a bill passed Congress, which required the Secretary of War to refund the $300 commutation...

The Democrats are seeking for the colored vote in the South, and a part of it, and will get more. At the Democratic ratification meeting in New Orleans, on the 18th inst., their resolutions asserted the kindness of their feelings towards the colored population, and cited the late election in Mississippi as proof of what can be done in this direction by the Democrats.

This effort is not a surprise to sagacious men. On the other hand, it is foreseen from the beginning, by some. THADDEUS STEVENS sought to guard his rights by requiring in his instructions, that a certain portion of the land of rich Rebel landholders should be confiscated and divided among loyal negroes, in small tracts, as homesteads.

ASSASSINATION prevails over the South. Last week, Capt. Benjamin H. Orr of Harrison county, Mississippi, was assassinated for his political opinions. He was a Republican member of the National Convention to frame a Constitution.

ROBERT TOOMBS of Georgia, was recently pardoned by ASHMEAD JOHNSON, and at once he entered into politics—making a speech at Atlanta, the new Capital of that State. His speech is a compound of Treason and a kind of perjury.

MARTIN F. CONWAY, formerly M. C. from Kansas, lately a JOHNSON man, has come out for GRANT, and in a recent letter makes this capital point: "In the recent Convention, I voted for the conservative element, because the conservative element of that party, and I am a conservative."

THE N. Y. Times calls attention to the fact, since the nomination of SEYMOUR and Blair, that the old-time Unionists are coming forth not only to resume their former places as leaders of affairs, but to see them coming forth to plow the field of the Union.

MAJOR R. H. G. LASS, of Lynchburg, Va., "Conservative" candidate for Congress, has declined to run, and in declining expresses the opinion that the white people of his district do not wish to elect a negro.

BLAIR'S revolutionary letter, which so much commended him to the Rebel forces in the Convention, they are now finding it difficult to get rid of. The Tribune, in its leading Democratic paper in Western Pennsylvania, has published a copy of that letter, and justified the charge that that provision of the Union, which has been voted to repeal, and has limited the time of presentation to two years from the date of the passage of this act.
