The county has been flooded, the last week, withsome documents, under the frank of Hon. B. M. Boyer, Copperhead M. C., the burthen of which is that the U. S. bondholder gots the interest on his bond in gold.

We know a good many Copperheads—some of them candidates on the Copperhead Solution of their county officers—who probably don't object to this, though their party holds it out as a Republican offense.

We have examined, and found the names of the persons whose votes settled that policy. Let us see who they are.
