Dr. Backson—Dear Sir:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recombrendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my avanal course, to express my full conviction that, for general debting of the system, and spacefully but here fumplaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fall; but meanly, I doubt not, the will be very heneficial to those who eather from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully.

The Democracy apparently make a desperate fight over the national debt, but the grand secret of the opposition of the Belmonts, and all the brokers and jobbers in claims, to this fourteenth amendment is that it crushes out of existence the six thousand millions of the rebel debt.
