MERTING OF CONGRESS.

Congress met at noon on Monday last, with a large attendance of members in both Houses, with an evident disposition on the part of the Republican majority to consider only measures of the greatest importance. In the Senate, after considerable discussion, the credentials of Senator Joshua Hill (Republican) of Georgia, were laid on the table for the present. During the debate some of the Republican members denounced the course of the Democratic majority in the Legislature of Georgia in expelling from their seats all the legally elected colored members. Various amendments to the Constitution on the subject of universal suf-Senator Sumper is of a sweeping character. It gives the right to vote for President, members of Congress, State. county and city officers, to every citizen, without regard to race or color, and imposes severe penalties upon any election officer who interferes in any manner in the exercise of this suffrage. Mesars, Cragin and Pomery also offered amendments, differing from Mr. Sumner's, but looking to the same end.-Senators Frelinghuysen, Yates and ers, and to prevent a repetition of the disgraceful trauds that were practiced by the Democracy of New York, Philadelphia and other large cities, at the last election. Mr. Drake offered a resolution providing that no vacancy occurring in the grade of General or Admiral shall be filled without the authority of Congress; and if any vacancy occur in the grade of General his powers and unties shall devolve upon a vacancy in that grade, upon such by the President. Senator Sumner in-
