Friend John Saman, in Harrison, Westchester county, Mr. Eugene V. Lorton, of this city, married himself to Miss Amy T. Mosher, of Greenwick, Conn. Arriving at the WHOLE NO. 3542. nansion, the guests were ushed into the earlors, where bright fires of wood were liazing in the great open fire-place. The ceremony was to take place at eight o'clock in the evening. Long before that bour the pariors were crowded, with the exception of a passage way left through the centre of each. The Friends in their pecuilar and well known costume, were seated in the front parlor in solemn silence. The gentiemen were, for the most part, dressed in black with white neck ties, while the ladies were small lace caps with little peaked crowns and lace underhandkerchiefs.

> Whenever a friend entered the room, he or she shook hands with each one present, saluting them by their given names. Beneath the mirror in the front parlor a sofa had been placed for the bride and groom, and upon either side were chairs for the stives being assembled, the best man and woman entered the back parlor, followed cire length of the pariors, and amid profound silence took the seats designed for them. For about five minutes, during which a silent prayer is supposed to be of tered, no one spoke or moved. The bride at like a statue, with downcast eyes, but olushing perceptibly. The whole scene appeared more like a tableau than an ordinary wedding ceremony. After enduring the silence as long as seemed desirable, the bride and bridegroom arose, taking each other by the right hand, when the bridegroom said : "In the presence of the Lord, and these people, I take thee, Amy, to be my wite, promising by the Divine sesistance to be I look around me here and see men workinto thee a loving and faithful husband, uning for a franc a day, simply because wodi death doth part ua." men can be procured to do the work for Then Amy said the same words to Eugene, stumbung a little at the word "husuand." At the conclusion of this part of the ceremony the company was again scated, and allence reigned protound. The bride was dressed after the ordinary fashion, in waite cashmere en train, trimmed with wnite satin, pompadour waist, isce under waist, veil, orange flowers, ect., ect.

During the silence succeeding the ceremony an opportunity was offered for any a the spirit moved. After waiting for some time a quiet, mortherly lady made the folioming specificion: "This is indeed a very solemn ceremony, and we will need the Divine assistance in living up to its requirements. Another period of silence and the brideground arose and kissed the oride, whereupon the best man and woman did the same which are now the indiscriminate shelters of chickens and children-of creatures who

THE "WOMEN QUESTION" IN SWITE Dr. J. G. Holland (Timothy Titcomb) in a letter from Switzerland, published the Springfield Republican, gives the fol lowing statement of the condition of the la oring women of that country: Here the "woman question" exhibits a very ifferent phase from that which it presents in the United States. In most departments of labor in Switzerland, no difference whatever is made between women and men, ex cept that men get more for a day's work

Olivier de Speyr"-the two names representing those of the husuand and wife respectively. Woman has here all the variety of pursuit she can de sire. I have not heard of her preaching or practicing law or medicine, but I really de not see what should hinder, it she desires it. Well, what is the effect of this introduction of women into all the work and busi ness of men? Simply, the universal de gradation of men, and women too. When

The whole-laboring population of Switzerland are in the hands of the capi talist, simply because the service of me and women is intercuangeable. Let the women of Switzerland be sub tracted to-day from the laboring force of the country, in those fields never invaded by women in America, and the number of laborers is reduced to a point where labor can have a word to say as to what shall be inprice. Let woman's labor be subtracted rom these fleids and the wages of m. n. wonto be trebled at once, the laboring class wonte receive a third more for the work done that it receives now, and the women, ceasing to be beasts of burden, would gradually make
