Gov. REABY was seriously ill last week, so that his visit was not admitted. On Sunday Dr. Coogan, Dr. Phillips, his surgeon during the war, was telegraphed for. Although still confined to bed, he is said to be able to attend to business in a few days.

SENATOR STEWART, from the Senate Judiciary Committee, on Friday last reported the following proposed amendments to the Constitution: Article 15. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged on account of race, color or previous conviction of crime. Congress will probably be required to an act to carry out the proposed amendment. It will pass both houses by a decided vote.

On the 13th inst., the two houses of the Legislature in joint session to elect a State Treasurer, to succeed Gen. Irwin. On first ballot, Robert W. Mackey received 75 votes; Charles W. Cooper, 31; and Edward B. Lewis, 1. That of Senator Fisher of Lancaster. Mr. Mackey was there declared duly elected State Treasurer for one year. Mr. Mackey is Captain of one of the Fifth Mass. and is represented to be a gentleman of high character and superior financial abilities. He is of course a Republican.

The Judiciary Committee of the U. S. Senate has decided to report against the admission of the Hon. JOSHUA HILL as Senator from Georgia. They take this action on the ground that his election was illegal, as the Legislature, previous to his election, expelled a number of its colored members in an illegal manner. This decision will of course occasion lengthy debate when the report is made, and finally dispose of the question regarding the eligibility of colored men to hold office under the constitution of the reconstructed States.

The Commission, consisting of Messrs. Derricks, Hall and McVagh, appointed to revise the Civil Code of the State, are at present comparing the entire revision with the original. A report will be made to the Legislature of the number and character of the bills prepared, and an abstract given of each section. The entire revision is expected to be completed by November, 1892, and reported to the Legislature of 1893. The present Legislature will probably do nothing towards enacting into laws the bills prepared by the Commission.

The report of the Adjutant General, D. B. McCABE, shows that in 1892 there were only 3 military companies in the State; in January, 1892, there were 48, and on the 1st of March there were 71, of which number 57 were in Philadelphia. In 63 counties of the State there are no military organizations whatever. York county reports three companies, Adams county reports three companies, "Gettysburg," "Zouaves," and the number enrolled militia in Adams county is 1,600, and Franklin 4,823. No report from York or Cumberland.

We are glad to notice that our Republican friends at Harrisburg are moving in the matter of a Registry law. A joint committee of the two Houses has been appointed to digest and report a bill on the subject, consisting of Messrs. Errett, Stinson, Olmstead, Davis and Connell, on the part of the Senate, and Messrs. Stines, Nicholson, Brown of Huntingdon, McCollough and Rogers, on the part of the House of Representatives. The Democracy will of course fight any bill that may be agreed on, but we are confident that they will not be able to break up their favorite pastime of ballot-stuffing and fraud. This, however, should only incite our friends to put through a bill thorough and searching in all its provisions.

HON. JOHN SCOTT, who is to succeed Mr. Buckalew in the Senate, is cordially endorsed by the Press generally as a gentleman of unblemished character, high intelligence, and a correspondent of the American Presbyterian thus alludes to his Christian character: "I am no less elated as a Pennsylvanian by the prospect of seeing the State represented by an able, consistent and Christian man, than I am by the prospect of seeing the State represented by a man of such high intelligence and Christian character as John Scott, who will undoubtedly carry with him his Christianity and his contentment of the partisan policy which will bring divergence upon the State, or the church in which he is a ruling elder, and Sabbath school Superintendent."

On last Thursday morning Caldwell's marble block buildings, on the corner of Ninth and Chestnut Sts., Philadelphia, was entirely destroyed. The buildings contained Caldwell's jewelry establishment, Howell's paper-hangings store and Ornes' carpet rooms. The building was of marble, and considered one of the handsomest structures in the city. The fire was discovered about one o'clock, and spread with great rapidity. The Continental Hotel and Grant House were for a time threatened with destruction. Caldwell lost $250,000, with an insurance of $185,000; Howell $285,000, insurance $145,000; Ornes $130,000, fully insured. The fire is supposed to have originated in the burning of a boiler in the basement of Caldwell's building. Two of his employees, sleeping in the establishment, are missing.

There are three contested election cases before the Legislature, all growing out of the Philadelphia frauds at the October election. Wm. M. Bunn, Republican, contests the seat of Daniel Witham, Democrat, returned as elected to the House. Mr. Russell Thayer, Republican, contests the election of Thomas Greenback, Democrat, returned as elected by a majority of 10 in the office of Associate Judge of the District Court of Philadelphia; and Wm. L. Hilt, Democrat, contests the election of Judge Hays, Republican, returned as elected by a majority of 50 in the District Court of Philadelphia. Contingencies have been appointed in each case, and it is to be hoped that the Legislature will act promptly upon the cases, and settle the matter of the District Court of Philadelphia as soon as possible.

The Democratic in the Pennsylvania Legislature cast their votes for Wm. A. Wallace for U. S. Senate—Wallace being the Buckalew in caucus. It was an empty honor, however, the Republican caucus having declined to send John Scott, of Huntingdon, as Buckalew's successor.

The Legislature of Pennsylvania for some years has been notoriously abused for alleged corruption and extravagance. Last year the General Process of the State was very severe in its animadversions, and it was to be hoped that there would such reforms as to put an end to the abuses. It is to be hoped that the Legislature of this year will be able to do so. The Legislature of this year will be able to do so. The Legislature of this year will be able to do so.
