The Star and Sentinel. THE GOLDEN SIDE. There is many a rose in the road of life, If we would only stop and take it;

And many a tone from the better land, If the querolous heart would make it; To the sunny soul that is full of hope, And whose beautiful trust ne'er faileth,

Though the Winter storm prevaileth. Better to hope, though the clouds hang low

And to keep the eyes still lifted ; for the sweet blue sky will still peer through,

When the om inous clouds are rifted ! There was never a night without a day, Or an evening without a morning ; And the darkest hour, as the proverb goes

Is the hour before the dawning. There is many a gem in the path of life, Which we pass in our idle pleasure,

That is richer far than the jeweled crown Or the miser's hoarded treasure ; t may be the love of a little child, Or a mother's prayers to Heaven,

Better to weave in the web of life

And to do God's will with a ready heart, And hands that are ready and willing,
