R E M O V E D This invaluable Remedy for Dyspensia and General Debility of the system is offered to the public, after a fair trial of its merits, with entire confidence that it will command their approval. It has been submitted with the materials which, compose it, to practising Physicians—among others to Dr. M. D. G. Pratters, one of our oldest and most eminent Physicians, residing at New Oxford, who, after examination, pronounced it a Remedy which would not fault to show its salutary effects, when properly administered, in cases of Dyspepus, springing from old age and debilitating effects of serious inward disease—weakening, and at last destroying the nervous power of the atomach itself—and therefore entitling it to be emphatically called "The Great Invigorator"

Dr. W. J. McClurr, another prominent Physician of New Oxford, thus gives his applicant.

Mr. John Busser.

Dar Sir:—At your request I have examined "The Great Invigorator," prepared by you, and the formula from which it is prepared. It is composed of some of the most powerful vegetable tonics and most pheasant aromatics known to our profession, and I have no the hostancy in recommending it in Chronic cases of Dyspopsis, and in all cyses of Indigestion resulting from debility of the Stomach. Believing that, if properly used, it will be of incalculable benche to the suffering of our race, I subscribe myself.

Yours, very respectfully,

W. J. McClurre, M. D.
