This invaluable Remedy for Dyspepsia and General Debility of the system is offered to the public, after a fair trial of its mentit, with online sondenes that it will commend their approxis. It has been submitted, with the materials which compose it, to practising Physiolans—among others to Dr. M. D. G. Perferren, one of our oldest and most eminent Physicians, residing at New Oxford, who, after examination, promounced it a Remedy which would not fail to show its salatary effects, when properly administered, in cases of Dyspepsia, springing from old age and debilitating effects of serious inward diseases—weakening, and at hast destroying the nervous power of the stomach itself—and therefore entiting it to be emphatically called "The Great Invigorator."

Dr. W. J. McClurk, another prominent Physician of New Oxford, thus gives his opinion:

New Oxford, thus diverted his opinion:
