REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

The Republican election in Washington City on Monday last resulted in a decisive victory for the Republican party. The city was carried by about 4,600 majority, sweeping every ward, with an overwhelming majority in the City Council.

There was great order at the polls, except in the second ward, where the Democrats made a desperate effort to increase their number by acting with the Democrats. One man is reported killed. The disturbance was soon quieted by Mayor Bowen, though not all Major Richards, superintendent of police, had been maltreated.

The "Orangeans" in Ireland are just now rampant in their denunciations of Gladstone and the leaders of the Liberal party in the English Parliament. Large meetings have been held in London, Dublin and other parts of the Kingdom, denouncing the Bill to disestablish the Irish Church.
