NEW LONDON, CORM, April 28, 1869.

REMINISHED FRIMED—I thought it wall to wait another week before writing, to see if I continued to improve, as I have been doing for some time, under the treatment of the new medicine, and I am happy to tell you that I am getting better—even faster than when you were here. I commenced the use of DOIDD'S HERVINE without anybody advising it. When I began with it I could only walk from my bed to the chair. My trouble has been axtivine pain in the head, and has insted over three years. All the medicine I have heresofter taken has failed to give any relied. I am now able to go up and down raters, and daily improving. I semider the BERVINE the best medicine I even found, and shall continue in use, for I am conditions of omiter recovery. I have taken only three bottless, and would not be without it on any account.

Yery truly,
