ROBERT G. HARPER, the senior edi-Republican nominee for Associate Judge, is so well known that no endorsement is needed at our hands. For half a century he has stood prominently before the people of the county as sole editor of the "ADAMS SENTINEL," always true to the principles of his party, a high-toned gentleman, with a reputation for integrity that no man dare to impugn. The question recurs, where does Man live? He seems to be a regular "carpet-bagger." He "carpet-bagged" from Connecticut to Carbon county; then "carpet bagged" to the Merchants" Hotel, to escape the payment of Borough, School and Bounty Taxes, and vote, leaving his family at Manch Chunk.
