But the avil hour that proved her ruin was the door to No. 185 North Howard street, BALTIMORE, and from which went out the innocence of No. 511 Market street, PHILADELPHIA. All goods childbood, and having spent a young life in disgrace and shame, the poor friendless JOHN CRESS. one died the melancholy death of a brokenhearted outcast. Among her personal effects was found in manuscript. The Rean tiful Snow,' which was immediately carried to Rnos B. Reed, a gentleman of culture and literary taste, who was at that time editor of the National Union. In the columns of that paper, on the morning of the day following the girl's death, the poem appeared in print for the first time. When the paper containing the poem came out on Sunday morning, the body of the victim had not yet received burial. The attention of Thomas Buchanan Read, one of the firm imerican poets, was so taken with their stirring pathos, that he immediately followed the corpse to its final resting-place.-
