DEATH is busy gathering in the great ones of our country. We have already noticed, the deaths of GEO. PEABODY, Admiral CHAS. STEWART, Mai, Gen. JOHN E. WOOL, and AMOS KENDALL. We now add to the list that of Hon. ROBERT J. WALKER, who died in Washington on Thursday the 11th instant, in the 68th year of his age. He ter which each Assembly formed in was a lawyer of great ability, and a lifelong Democrat, but thoroughly devoted to the country, refusing to follow his party whenever, in his judgment. it proved recreant to the cause of Freeiom. As Governor of Kansas, under Buchanan, he refused to become a party to the Lecompton swindle, and reigned rather than give his aid to the efarious effort to fasten slavery on an inwilling people. During the Rebelion, he cordially supported the Government, voting for Lincoln's re-elecby Dr. Fowler, who at the close clasped tion as necessary to a vigorous prosecuhands with Dr. Jacobus, and protion of the war, although disapproving nounced the union complete.
