The Star and Sentinel.

Gettysburg, Friday, Jan. 7, 1870.

WEEK OF PRAYER.—During the present week religious services are being held every evening in St. James Lutheran, the Methodist and Presbyterian churches.

SUCCESSFUL.—Mr. Samuel Hewitt, of Butler township, and his sons recently, in a two days hunt, killed 12 Raccoons, 13 Rabbits, and a Squirrel of a rare species.

DEERSHOT.—Joseph Orndoff, in company with Martin H. Thomas, both of Butler township, shot a deer on Keckler's Hill, three miles from this place, on the 29th ult. Its weight was 85 pounds. It had been run down from the mountain.—Compiler.

SHERIFF'S SALES.—On Saturday last Sheriff Klunk sold the property of John Snyder, in Abbottstown, to Henry Wolf for $1450; also the property of Thomas Allwine, in the same place, to Mr. Wolf for $900. Wm. Bittinger bought the interest of Allwine in 3 Acres of Land for $5.

RAILROAD ELECTION.—The election for officers of the Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Railroad was held in Frederick on Monday, with the following result: President, John Loats; Directors, Dr. Rinedollar, Captain Eichelberger, John Sifford, Lewis Bruner, Wm. S. Bantz; Treasurer, David J. Markey; Secretary, James McSherry.

THANKS.—The Carrier desires us to return his thanks to the patrons of the "STAR & SENTINEL" for their liberal response to his New Year's Greeting. It may be proper to say that in the hurry of getting the Address to press, the metre in several stanzas, as put in type, varies somewhat from that of the manuscript—being in neither case an improvement.

The word "the" should be omitted in the last line of the 4th stanza, and the word "But" should be inserted at the beginning of 2d line of 5th stanza.

PRESENTATION.—Rev. Wm. E. Parsons, son of Rev. George Parsons of Hanover, and graduate of the institutions at this place, was recently called to Washington City as assistant to Rev. Dr. Butler, Pastor of the Lutheran church in that city. We notice by the Washington Republican that on the evening of the 30th ult., Mr. Parsons was made the recipient of a handsome gold lever watch, as an expression of regard from a few of the young men of Dr. B's church. The presentation took place at a sociable in Dr. Butler's parlor.

SALES.—John Socks, on Saturday last, bought a half lot of ground with shop, &c., on West Middle street for $1375—sold by Wm. A. Duncan, Esq., as Assignee of George A. Codori. Michael Fiscel, as Administrator with the will annexed, recently sold the property of Jacob Haner, deceased, in Mountjoy township, to John Bushman—4 acres, with improvements, at $800.

D. F. Pittenturf has purchased a house and lot on West High street, from Miss Kate Foster, at $1,100.

HIBERNIAN.—An honest son of Erin, having lived in the family of a physician in a neighboring town for a number of years, took his departure for the west, hoping to make his fortune. His attachment to the family and a desire to see them led him to leave the West and journey East again. Arriving at his old home, he presented himself before the Dr., who exclaimed: "Why, Miles, is it possible that this is you? I thought you were dead." The simple hearted Irishman innocently replied: "And d' ye think I'm so dumb, that if I had died, I would'nt have sent ye word?"

PRESENTATION.—On Sabbath afternoon last the Officers and Teachers of the Methodist Episcopal Sabbath School of this place presented their excellent Superintendant, Mr. J. L. Schick, with a handsome silver Pitcher and a pair of Goblets, Mr. Fostnacht presenting them in the name of the school in a neat speech, wherein the long and faithful services of the Superintendent were recognized. The affair had been gotten up so quietly and judiciously that Mr. S. knew nothing of it, and was of course no little surprised. It was a pleasant incident, and was enjoyed by the entire school.

PHILIP PHILLIP'S CONCERT.—All who desire to enjoy a rich musical treat, will do well to bear in mind the Concert of Philip Phillips, the distinguished Vocalist, in Agricultural Hall on Thursday evening, Jan. 20. There have been repeated efforts to secure Mr. Phillips for Gettysburg, but they have always failed by reason of his engagements being made for long periods in advance. He comes now at the request of the Methodist Episcopal Church of this place, and the proceeds of the Concert will be for the benefit of that church. Besides being a vocalist of high reputation he is the author of some of our most popular Sabbath School music. He ought to have a full house.

ELECTION.—On Monday last the annual election for officers of the Agricultural Society was held, resulting in the choice of the following persons:

President—Samuel Herbst.

Vice-Presidents—J. S. Witherow, Ephraim Myers.

Recording Secretary—E. G. Fahnestock.

Corresponding Secretary—H. J. Stahle.

Treasurer—David Wills.

Managers—Wm. B. Wilson, Jonas Rouzahn, Wm. Wible, W. Ross White, Frederick Diehl.

The Treasurer's Report shows that the indebtedness of the Society is about $4,900, being the balance due on purchase of grounds and erection of buildings.

PUBLIC SALES.—The season for sales of Personal Property is approaching. A liberal advertising of these sales always proves a good investment. It is poor economy to save a few dollars, and thereby neglect to make the sale known as widely as possible. Attractive Bills judiciously posted will do much to draw attention; but there are hundreds of farmers, especially in winter, who who do not leave their homes and thus fail to see the Bills posted in Hotels and places of business. An advertisement in the newspaper carries home to every family weekly notice of the sales and the kind of articles to be offered, thus attracting many as bidders who wouldotherwise not be present. The large circulation of the STAR & SENTINEL in this and adjoining counties presents an invaluable medium of advertising these sales, the cost of advertising being but a trifle compared with the publicity thus given and the necessarily enhanced prices, growing out of competition in bidding.

We are also prepared to print, at short notice, attractive Sale Bills, having largely increased our stock of Job Type. Give us a call.

STEREOSCOPIC GALLERY.—Mr. T. F. Jeffries is now exhibiting a Stereoscopic Gallery in the Diamond, exhibiting some very fine views of Natural Scenery, noted Cataracts, Mountains, Glaciers, Caverns, Landscapes &c. Flowers, Animals, Domestic Scenes, Statuary, &c.—They are handsomely gotten up, and worthy of patronage, being calculated to instruct, refine and elevate. Our New Oxford correspondent speaks very highly of them. Mr. J. is a cripple, unable to do manual labor, and travels with his Gallery to earn a livelihood. His collection of views being very large, they are changed every day, so that each visit to the Gallery develops something new. Admittance 25 cents; children half price. Families admitted by the day or week at greatly reduced rates. Open at all hours of the day, and lit up at night with 14 lamps.

A SINGULAR CASE.—On Tuesday of last week, a man calling himself George P. Harrington came to this place, avowing that he was a special agent deputed to remove all the dead buried in the Soldiers' National Cemetery here to Washington. He made known his intentions to the authorities in charge of the Cemetery and expressed a desire that there might be no conflict of authority, but persisted in his determination to commence the work at once. He accordingly went to the Cemetery and commenced to dig open one of the graves, when he was arrested and lodged in prison. He says he was in the battle of Gettysburg, that he first went into the three months service from New York, and afterwards enlisted for three years in the 65th N. York Infantry—that he escaped unhurt until the battle of Cold Harbor, when he was shot through the breast, the ball passing from one shoulder to the other. His left arm and side seem paralyzed. He is about five feet ten inches in hight, weighs about 150 pounds, has black hair and dark whiskers and mustache, is well dressed and talks fluently. He is evidently insane, and may have escaped from an Asylum. On Sunday night he slept in the barn of Mr. Snell near New Freedom, on the Northern Central Railroad. On Monday night he slept in the barn of Mr. Samuel Neely at New Oxford. At neither place would he sleep in the house. He stated his object in coming to Gettysburg at both these places. He has thus far most studiously avoided giving the name of any person with whom he is acquainted, and thus has placed it beyond the power of any one to ascertain his friends or from whence he came. He says he has been living in Washington for some time but will give no names or specific locality.

David Wills, Esq., President of the National Cemetery Association, promptly communicated with the Mayor of Washington city, and on Wednesday received a letter from Maj. Richards, Superintendent of Police, stating that Harrington has been an inmate of the Government Asylum for the Insane, and is troubled with periodical attacks of insanity.

We understand that yesterday Harrington recovered his consciousness, and sent for Mr. Wills, who has made arrangements for his return to his friends.

TURNPIKE.—On last Saturday, a number of the prominent citizens of Fairfield and the surrounding country met at the Public School House, in Fairfield, to organize a Company, with the view of building a Turnpike from Fairfield to Gettysburg. Col. R. C. Swope was called to the Chair and J. S. Witherow appointed Secretary. The meeting was addressed by Col. Swope, H. Yingling, and others, on the importance and advantages of a road. After some discussion it was resolved to build a road, and H. Yingling, John L. Tate, P. Shively, Maj. John Musselman, James Marshall, Jacob Musselman, Frank Bream, D. H. Reaman, David Stewart, and J. S. Witherow, were appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions. The committee have their Books open and are ready to receive subscriptions. On Saturday 133 shares were sold at $25 a share. It is thought that the road can be built for $30,000. Fairfield needs a turnpike more than any other town in the county. It is situated in one of the best grain and produce sections of the county, and the Committee should have no trouble in receiving a hearty response on their subscription books. The movement should be vigorously prosecuted.

THE INDIANS COMING.—A week or two ago an announcement was made for a Concert in Agricultural Hall by the noted Troupe of Mohawk Indians, but it failed to come off by reason of not being able to reach town in time, on account of the bad roads. The Concert, however, will come off in Agricultural Hall on Saturday evening next, without fail. We may say that our exchanges speak in very complimentary terms of this troupe, both as to their personale and the character of their Concerts. The last Chambersburg Public Opinion has the following notice of a Concert in that place:

INDIAN VOCALISTS.—The concert given by the Mohawk Vocalists on Saturday and Monday evenings, the 25th and 27th ult., was one of the pleasant things that helped to make our holidays enjoyable. To say that their singing was good, would convey but a poor idea of it; and when we say that Chambersburg has rarely heard such music, we only give publicity to the expressions of all who were so fortunate as to hear them. The singing of Mr. Mah Koonce, (basso) was superb, and we do not recollect of ever hearing his equal, unless indeed, it was Frisbie, of the original Continentals. Their quartette performances were very fine—the harmony being most perfect—and some of the selections were rendered in such a manner as to cause one's very soul to think they were listening to voices celestial. Mrs. Mah Koonce and Miss Acewestaiyouh elicited hearty applause for the bewitching manner in which they rendered their several parts.

Little Dayorahyatha, who was suffering from indisposition, kept the younger portion of the audience in a continual roar.

☞Admission 35 Cents—Chidren under 12 years 25 Cents. Reserved Seats 50 Cents.

BEFORE THE FOOT LIGHTS AND BEHIND THE SCENES.—Under this title Messrs. PARMELEE & Co. are about issuing a new work from the pen of Miss OLIVE LOGAN, former actress, and at present one of our most brilliant lecturers. Miss LOGAN having abandoned the stage and entered the ranks of Reformers, has prepared this work with a view of promoting sound morals and exposing the dangerous tendencies of theatrical life. Miss LOGAN has achieved quite a reputation as a bright, witty, fascinating lecturer, and the book now in press will doubtless be an exceedingly readable one. We have examined some advance sheets, which indicate good letter press, with quite a number of illustrations. Miss LOGAN leads the reader into the secrets of the "show world,"—behind the scenes of the Theatre—into the dressing room of the Circus—among the caged animals of the Menagerie—exhibits a brilliant phantasmagoria of buffoons, mountebanks, actors, actresses, operatic artists, street tumblers, jugglers, wild-beast tamers, their public and private lives, habits, both good and bad, and in short, a veritable turning "inside out" of that mysterious world concerning which so little has hitherto been reliably known. In the hands of an ordinary writer, this book would suggest much that is dangerous to read and introduce to the public; but, OLIVE LOGAN has so proved her love of good morals, and sound virtuous principles, that no one need fear that the tone of the book will be low.

The book will only be sold by subscription, and Mrs. E. M. HUNSBERGER, Agent for Parmelee & Co., is now canvassing Gettysburg for subscribers.

DIVIDEND.—The Gettysburg Gas Company has declared a dividend of five per cent. for the last six months.

NEW FIRM.—Perry J. Tate and Wm. D. Holtzworth have entered into Partnership in the Livery business, to be conducted at the old stand on Chambersburg street, opposite the Eagle Hotel. See adv.

NEW OXFORD, January 3, 1870.

DEAR STAR AND SENTINEL:—Some time has elapsed since I last wrote to you, and yet it seems but a few days ago. Days, weeks, months, years and centuries are passing rapidly away in the lightning train on the railroad of time, on to eternity.—Another Christmas and New Year are numbered among the things of the past.—As we grow older, seemingly, time glides more swiftly along. The merry ring of youthful revelry and joyous mirth, and the ineffable delight and noises of the infantile toddlers during the past Christmas, seem scarcely gone before another Christmas is upon us; and the same festivities are again renewed. Such scenes are calculated to dispose the mind to a retrospective glance to well-remembered days of yore, when Christmas was spent with less ostentation than at the present day.

Well, dear STAR AND SENTINEL,—I have at least secured my own consent to write you a few lines; but the question is, what shall I write? for I have always heard that a man must have something to say before he can say anything; and I feel the force of this saying more sensibly than ever; but no excuse, no apology will be acceptable now; something must come, but in a small village like New Oxford, very little of interest transpires. Then to proceed: I will remind you, Mr. Editor, that I came to this place a few days ago. We had wet weather, quite discouraging for winter, yet in some respects, the spirit and vim of the people have not deserted them, but with the recent rains, mud has come, and all the elements of industry too; for on Saturday last, New Year's day, there was quite a display of energy and activity, not generally seen in this place. The town was crowded with horse men, footmen, and ladies too, to witness a Fox chase, that took place about 1 o'clock. Such a flutter, splash of mud and rolling, I never did see; but old Reynard had the start of the dozen hounds and before they could find the track, the old fox was gone. A few hours chase followed, but to no effect; he was lost—no fox, but plenty of tired men and horses. One of my Hanover friends introduced Gymnastics, but could get no one to follow suit, so that ended in but one tumble.

Jeffries' Stereoscopic Gallery is now exhibiting views of the most beautiful in the world, and as he will soon be going to Gettysburg I would say go and see them by all means. You will there see grand and sublime scenes of Nature in her Cataracts, her Mountains, Landscapes, Flowers, Animals, &c. He has been a cripple for 15 years past, unable to walk. Yesterday was quite a disagreeable day—rain, shine, wind, snow, &c. To day it is quite pleasant again, and the town presents a lively business like appearance.

Last, but not least, Mr. STAR, I must say something of this place, before I leave, not knowing when I may return again. It is the very spot above all others, between this and Gettysburg, or any other place, for poor, wearied, worn out man, to spend a few days, and if the hospitality, kind attention and good treatment of Houser, of the Washington House, can afford him no relief, his case will be one for the Doctors to pronounce hopeless and beyond the reach of science.

To you and your patrons I tender the compliments of the season, and wish you and them all a "Happy New Year."

A PEDESTRIAN.

THE HOWE SEWING MACHINE!

PROOF POSITIVE OF ITS EXCELLENCE OVER ALL OTHERS!

CERTIFICATES FROM PERSONS NOW USING THE HOWE.

FREEDOM TWP., ADAMS CO., Jan. 4, 1870.

I the undersigned purchased a Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine. After using it a few weeks I found it not to be as represented. I notified the parties I purchased from, and they could not make it work successfully, and refused to repossess themselves of the machine and refund my obligations. I then disposed of it and purchased a Howe, which has given perfect satisfaction. ABRAHAM WAYBRIGHT.

SHIPPENSBURG, Oct. 9th, 1869.

For over one year I had in use in my family one of the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines. It was not equal to the range of work I often had on hand. I then disposed of it, and purchased one of the Howe New Family Sewing Machines. It works delightful in all particulars and has never failed to render good work and entire satisfaction in all kinds of use, from the finest to the heaviest material. I feel free to recommend the Howe to all who wish to purchase a perfect family machine.

MRS. WATSON CRAIG.

SHIPPENSBURG, Oct. 9th, 1869.

I have used the Howe Family Sewing Machine for more than two years and unhesitatingly pronounce it a Superior Machine. We have tested it upon the finest fabric to the heaviest material. Its simple construction and the great range of work it is able to perform, is a sufficient recommendation to all who wish a first-class Machine. We previously had a Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine, had it in use for over one year, sold it and bought the Howe Machine, which, in my judgment, is superior to the Wheeler & Wilson as a family Machine.

MRS. WILLIAM LYNN.

SHIPPENSBURG, Aug. 16th, 1869.

Having used a Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine for more than a year, I found that it would not do the range of work, I, as a seamstress, had occasion to do, I sold it and bought a Howe Family Sewing Machine which does all the different kinds of work satisfactory and would recommend it to all as a No. 1 Sewing Machine.

MRS. PRISCILLA E. BOHER.

SHIPPENSBURG, Aug. 16th, 1869.

I have used a Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine for over a year. Not proving satisfactory nor being able to do the range of work for family purposes, I sold it and bought a Howe Family Sewing Machine, which I have been using for some time, and take pleasure in recommending it as a superior Family Machine. For its simplicity and great range of work, it cannot be excelled.

MRS. JOHNSON SNODDY.

SHIPPENSBURG, Aug. 16th, 1869.

I have used a Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine for over a year. I sold it and bought a "Howe" Family Sewing Machine which has been used for some time, and take pleasure in recommending it as a good Family Machine. It can do a great range of work and is simple in its construction.
