MORNON TRIBUDATION AND ST

A shrewd traveller who writes letters le the London Dally News has visited the Mormons, and gives following intere-ting information ;

"Out of the 150,000 citizens of Utali Territory at least three-fourths have emigrated from Europe. As many as four thousand European Latter Day Saints are said to cross the Atlantic yearly, in order to cast in their lot with their brethren beyond the Rocky Mountains. In no country has the success of the Mormon missionaries been o great as in England, because in no othr country has the like liberty been accorded to them. "In January, 1853, Elders Orson Spencer and Jacob Houtz arrived in Berlin, Prussia, but found it was impossible to preach or publish the truth of the Latter Day work ject of their mission. They were ordered to leave the kingdom next morning under penalty of transportation." The succeeding paragraph, which relates to Gibraltar, stands out in marked contrast to the forcgoing. An elder who went there the same year that his brethren proceeded to Prussia had his right to remain on the rock chalenged by the Governor, who afterwards recognized it, but forbade the preaching of Mormonism. Elder Stevenson paid no year, and baptised several, amidst threa!s, prohibitions and constant opposition. "This illustrates the difference between the governor of a British pessession and a Prussian police magistrate. The latter having decided against Mormonism, made his will law to the elders. They had sim ply to choose between an immediate departure from the kingdom and the penalty of transportation. At Vienna the elders were rebuffed as effectually as at Berlin. Two of them went to the capitol of Austria in 1864. There 'they labored for several months to acquire the German language, but in consequence of religious intolerance they were unable to open the door for the proclamation of the gospel in that country. In some of the British colonies the missionaries were treated as summarily as in the countries just named. On the whole, the religious toleration which is the glory of England has made that country an open "Well, our Sal is goin' to be married and field for their labors.
