FIRE.-On Wednesday night las shortly after midnight, persons living in the eastern portion of the town were startled by an alarm of Fire. It seems that in housing the Locomotive in the Engine House below the freight depot, some sparks from the smoke stack had lodged on the rafters supporting the roof. Being a concrete roof of coal tar and gravel it burned flercely for a while, but the slarm summoned a number of persons to the spot by whose prompt efforts the fire was extinguished after destroying
