THE Copperheads betray their real sympathies by the avidity with which they seize upon and gloat over every they seize upon and gloat over every under false pretenses, and in violation of manifesto designed to palliate the the Constitution, therefore a fraud upon the whatever tends to belittle the great slaves of the masses to the soldiers and statesmen by whose devotion the nation was saved. Just now the Copperhead press is in high glee over Judge Black's malignant attack on Edwin M. Stanton and weak defence of Howell Cobb, Isaac Toucy, John B. Floyd, and Jacob Thompson the conspirators of Buchanan's Cabinet, who bankrupted the Treasury, destroyed the credit of the nation, scattered the Army and Navy, and generally did their best to cripple the power of the Government, and lay it helplessly at the feet of the conspirators then plotting War and Treason. That Judge Risek should issue such a manifesto can only be accounted for by giving him credit for intense hatred of ment over the failure of the Rebellion festo by the Copperhead Press must be accepted as evidence of equally keen disappointment that the War ended in the overthrow of the Rebellion and the triumph of Freedom.

THE Copperhead papers are denounce ing Congress for not having agreed to repeal the Income tax. They would have denounced Congress, as legislating in the interests of the rich, if that particular tax had been repealed. The truth is, Congress has done the equitable thing. It has entirely exempted from the tax all persons whose net incomes do not exceed $2,000 a year; and it has reduced the rate of tax to three per cent. on:all whose netncomes are $2,000 or upwards a year. nated against the poor by repealing the for apparatus for resection, $50. tax, nor has it maintained the tax at
