These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimpess of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Papitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Pebliky, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE

DiskASE OF IMPRUDENCE

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him so that undiscovered country, "from whence no traveler returns."

It is a melancholy fact, that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of Jgnorant or Unskillful PRETEND. ERS, who by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renew-him with ruined Health, to sign over his gailing disappointment.

Aver's Cathartic Pills. OR ALL THE PURPOSES OF LAXATIVE MEDICINE.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this midd but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; coutaining neither calomei or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal vincers to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the body, restoring their irregular action to health and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—
For Dyspersa or Indoorstron, Lustinessume.

The Star and Sentinel. she was interested in the fate of a man IS THERE ROOM IN ANGEL-LAND?

These lines were written after hearing the fo lowing touching incident related by a minister:— A mother who was preparing some flour to bake into bread, left it for a few moments, when little Mary—with childish curiousity to see what it was —took hold of the dish, when it fell to the floor, spilling the contents. The mother struck th child a severe blow, saying with anger, that she was always in the way! Two weeks after little Mary sickened and died. On her death-bed, while delirous, she asked her mother if there would be room for her among the angels. "I was always in your way, mother—you had no room for little Mary. And will I be in the angel's way? Will they have no room for me?" The broke arted mother then felt no sacrifice too great ould she have saved her child. Is there no room among the angels, For the spirit of your child? Will they take your little Mary In their loving arms so mild? Will they ever love me fondly, As my story books have said: Will they find a home for Mary-Mary numbered with the dead? Tell me truly, darling mother! Is there room for such as me? Will I gain the home of spirits,

And the shining angels see: I have sorely tried you, mother-Been to you a constant care! And you will not miss me, mother When I dwell among the fair! For you have no room for Mary-She was ever in your way, And she fears the good will shun her Will they, darling mother, say? Tell me-tell me truly mother, Ere life's closing hour doth come!

Do you think that they will keep me.

In the shining angel's home? I was not so wayward, mother: Not so very-very bad, But that tender love would nourish And make Mary's heart so glad! Oh! I yearned for pure affection, In this world of bitter woe! And I long for bliss immortal, n that land where I must go!

Tell me once again, dear mother, Ere you take the parting kiss! Will the angels bid me welcome To that world of perfect bliss: TOUCHING SKETCH.

She fairly burst into tears, and Moore, again exclaimed: who had been on the point of brushing carelessly past her, stopped instinctively. "Are you very much in want, of money ?'' "Indeed, sir, we are," sobbed the child.

A JOKE ON THE CHOIR.—Many years ago there was in the Eastern part of Masachusetts, a worthy D. D., and although he was an eminently benevolent man and a good Christain, yet it must be confessed that he loved a good joke much better than the most inveterate jokers. It was before church organs were much in use; it so happened that the choir of the church had recently purchased a double bass viol. Not far from the church was a large pasture, and in it a huge town bull. One hot Sabbath in the Summer he got out of the pasture, and came bellowing up the street. About the church there was plenty of untrodden grass, green and good, and Mr. Bull stopped to try the quality; perchance to ascertain if its location had improved its flavor; at any rate, the doctor was in the midst of his sermon when-"Boo-woo-woo," went the bull. The doctor paused, looked up at the singig seats, and with a grave face, said: 'I would thank the musicians not to une their instruments during service time;

Being a man of apparent education and quite respectable looking, he won the confidence of Mr. Smith. While conversing with the latter (which was done in German or Dutch), he spoke of having which Mr. S. resided and that he had learned from his reading that the early settlers had buried large amounts of money in that part of the country, and that e thought there was $20,000 or $25,000 in gold upon Mr. S.'s farm.
