WHILE the Copperhead Press is make ing a good deal of noise about the large national debt and the heavy-burdens of the tax-pavers, it is well to remember that every dollar of this debt is a Democratic legacy to the country, the result ment of the National Government-legislative and executive—was Democratic. Every Southern State that supported the Rebellion was under Democratic administration, and during the War Democratic presses and Democratic leaders gave active aid and comfort to armed Rebels, prolonging the war and necessitating increased sacrifices in men and money. The National Debt is therefore essentially a Democratic debt, the result of Democratic misrule, disloyalty and treason, and whatever of burden there may be to the tax-payer, it must be charged up against the Democratic

Another thing, it is well to remember -that with the rigid economy introduced into the National administration under Republican rule, not only is the National Debt being steadily diminished but the burdens of tax-payers are also being largely lightened. A Republican Congress has made a reduction of more than Two Hundred and Fifty Millions of Dollars in internal taxation and custom duties. The aggregate reduction, as shown by the official statement of the Treasury Department, is $254,848,827, divided as follows: By the act of July 16, 1866, $65,000,000; by act of March 2, 1867, $40,000,000; by act of February 3. 1868, $23,000,000; by act of March 31, and July 20, 1868, $48,000,000; by act of July 14, 1870, $55,212,000-total reduction in internal taxation $231,212;000,-The estimated decrease of duties on imports by the act of July 14, 1870, is $23.-636.827—making the total reduction in

THE Democratic Congressional Con ference met at McConnellsburg on the of Bedford for Congress. Adams voted for McSherry, Fulton for Smith, Franklin, Bedford and Somerset for Meyers. For some time the nomination of Mr. Mevers has been regarded a foregone conclusion. Mr. McSherry's friends were kept under the impression that he stood some chance, but sharp politicians knew it was all bosh. Mr. Meyers is an old politician, and an adept at managing cessfully manipulated the Democratic Conferees, he will find more trouble to manipulate the voters of the district. If the Democracy are satisfied with the nomination, the Republicans surely should be. If ever the opposition had the ghost of a chance to beat Mr. Cessna, they have utterly thrown it away, by putting up Mr. Meyers as his opponent. If the five counties had been thoroughly explored, we doubt if a more last, the Conferees of the three counties pronounced, ultra, vindictive Democrat met at Bridgeport. Bratton, finding could have been scared up—one with a more obnoxious political record, in all programme, refused to allow his Conrespects. A sympathizer with the South during the Rebellion, an avowed Freetrader, he cannot expect to command a single Republican vote, and ought to have difficulty in polling the vote of his own party. Mr. Meyers is editor of the Bedford Gazette, and also of the Harrisburg Patriot. No two Democratic papers in the State were more outspoken in their opposition to the War for the suppression of the Rebellion-more vin-advantage of this bitter Democratic chieftains who led our armies to victory -more malevolent in their attacks on President Lincoln—or more persistent in their hostility to the entire policy of the Republican party. Mr. Meyers' nomination at once consolidates the Re- be of interest to those who served in the publican ranks, and ensures the trium. War for the suppression of the Rebellion phant re-election of Hon. John Cessna.

We believe some took his advice, and were only saved from committing murder by missing their intended victims.

In 1865, he had soft words only for Booth, and indirectly justified the assassination of Lincoln, by denouncing Lincoln as a tyrant who deserved his fate, and by comparing his murder with historical characters who are remembered with a feeling akin to admiration.

There is no mistaking Meyers's politics. All admirers of assassination as a political agent, should vote for him. a political agent, should vote for him.

The New York World, the leading Democratic organ in the east, has all along boldly defended the desperate usuper who rules France, by reason of whose personal ambition the fairest fields of Europe are today drenched in blood, and thousands of precious lives are being sacrificed in the most causeless and wicked war of modern times. In a recent article on the subject, the Times, referring to the meetings called to express sympathy with Prussia, gives the Germans the following compliment:

It may be added that these Germa meetings to express sympathy for the Prussians are exhibitions of very cheap patriotism—worthy, however, of descendants of the hireling Hessians who fought against American Independence in 1776.
