The next night the office of Dr. Eichelberger, in Emmittsburg, was entered and several articles stolen. It turned out that a suspicious stranger had been in Emmitteburg during Saturday, offering a Priest's robe and other articles for sale to some colored people. When the news of the robbery of the Mechanicstown church reached Emmittsburg suspicion attached to this person, who passed by the name of James Dun. Word was sent to Detective Rouzer, of this place, who came across Dun on Tuesday night and arrested him. On searching him, a lady's embroidered sack was found on his person, but none of the articles missing from the church. ADVERTISING AGENCY.-Messrs. G. P. Rowell & Co., of New York, have bought out the Advertising Agency of Hooper & Co., of the same city, and the business of the two firms will be consolidated. For some years Messrs. Rowell & Co., have been the largest customers of the newspapers published in the United States, doing business on a cash basis. Their American Newspaper Directory which is conceded by all persons competent to pass judgment upon such a work, to be the most complete volume of its character ever issued in this or any other country, may be found on the shelves of every prominent advertiser. This firm has for some years been conceded to be the leading establishment of its kind in America. And the absorption of J.
