Mount Vernon and its Associations, History of Physicians and patients who have used Resadalls; send for our Resadalls Guide to Health Book, or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitious distribution; it will give you much valuable information. BY BENSON J. LOSSING. iuthor of "FIELD BOOK of the REVOLU-TION," "HISTORY of the UNITED STATES," etc., etc., etc. llustrated with nearly 150 Engravings Mainly from Original Drawings by the Author, embracing numerous Views of Mount Vernon Dr. R. W. Carr. of Baltimore, sava: arious Interesting Objects upon the Ground opies of Famous Pictures, Portraits of Washin on, and other Members of the Family, as well a Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore, says:

I take pleasure in recommending your Roadalling as a very powerful attending. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cused after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of scrotula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient, will soon recover. I have carried by the patient, will soon recover. I have carried by the conjulation of the patients of the patients of the patients.

Dr. Saraks of Nicholasville My says he "Mr. Lossing has combined his skill and practice both with pen and pencil in the preparation of this attractive volume. The narradive abounds with interesting details of the private and domestic life of Washington, set forth in an easy and familiar style." The pictorial illustrations, calledy from original drawings by the Author, are on the most generous scale. "New York Tribune.

"This volume is well adapted as a gift book, being at once historical and artistic."—Philadelphia preneaus.

Dr. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalls in cases of scrotula and Secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results —as a cleaner of the Blood I know no better "The Home of Washington' deserves the appellation given it, of a superb National gift-book."

"The 150 engravings, by Mr. Lossing, reproduce with martial fidelity all the relics, scenes, and localities connected with his abode that time has spared, and many, indeed, that no longer exist. It is a book whose value must necessarily increase with the lapse of years."—New York Times. Samuel G. M. Padden, Min freehoro', Tenn. I have used seven bottles of Bosadalisand am entirely cured of Bheumstiam ; send me four bottles, as I wisk it for my brother who has scrothlous sore eyes. "This superb volume is one of the most attractive of the many beautiful and valuable books given to the public by Mr. Lossing. " No object of interest escapes him, and his text and his stretches mutually illustrate each other. All those tharacteristics are in the volume before, us. Philodolphia Ledger.
