Meyers' majority ... The official returns show a Republican majority of 50 in the district for Jury Commissioner, notwithstanding the unexpected defection in Franklin, and the reduced majority in Somerset, where the opposition voted a number of railroad hands. It is clear, therefore, that Mr. Cessna would have been elected but for treachery in Somerset county. He made a handsome run in Bedford counare personally known-Mr. Cessna being the highest on the Republican ticket, while Mr. Mevers is the lowest on the Democratic ticket. But in Somerset, Mr. Cessna lost heavily over and above the Railroad vote—his majority being dependent reputational vote our Government. Herald charges "fraud, bribery and date. who treacherously circulated spurious and the majority of 2,341 reported tickets. The Herald intimates that Pritts was manipulated by Hon. A. H. Coffroth. About 240 Railroad hands were voted by Meyers' friends, of which the Herald has this remark:

"Besides the usual scenes along the work on the line of the Railroad, of turwork on the line of the Railroad, of tur-bulence and violence, there was an open and undisguised offer to swear through every vote; a persistent effort to 'get in' all available material, and had we not had careful friends watching the systematic effort at fraud, and preventing the same, as well as the terrors and intimidation of a brawling, drunken Irish crowd would termit, hundreds more would have been permit, hundreds more would have been added to the frauds upon the cause com-At Ursina, the polling place of Lower Turkeyfoot, they seemed to have rioted in their purposes. ## HOPING AGAINST: HOPE.

For ten years now (says the Chicago Posl,) ever since they passed hopelessly into the mineray, Democrats have been vigorously counting up their "gains," The boy upon the curb stone does not more industriously count his chips and forecast the day when he will be a millionaire; the crazy "queen" in an anylum does not more assiduously arrange her ribbons and anticipate that she will 1 D N White, a
