DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head, face and extremittes, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the month or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiscration till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to that undiscovered country, "from whence no traveler returns."

It is a melancholy fact, that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through failing into the hands of Jignorant or Unskillful PRICTEND. THE firm of Robert & Elliott having been dis-solved, it is succeeded by REBERT & BUSH-MAN, who will continue the Mercantile business at the old stand, on Baltimore street, opposite the Court-house, Gettysburg. The junior pariner has for years been employed as salesman in the store of J. L. Schick, and therefore brings to his section of 3. L. conicx, and therefore brings to his new position an experience in the business pos-sessed by few.

The stock now offered, owing to large additions of the newest and latest styles and patterns of Goods, is one of rare attractiveness, and cannot fail to please, whilst their prices, having bought to the best advantage, will also be found satisfac-tory. So when the doctor had read off the names of the successful canlidates, the audience gave the usual ounds of applause, and the boys in the galleries stamped till the old church shook, and clapped till their hands nearly blistered. Then the Boston band struck up "Home, Sweet Home," in such an enticing way that every one set out for their sweet home as fast as possible, and in ten minutes the church was silent and desert-The last notes of the band had died away, the musicians were bagging their instruments and buttoning up their overcoats, the sexton was shuffling softly around in his slippers, putting out the lights, the doctor and the gentlemen of the committee were waiting on the platform, and a dozen or more of us boys were waiting in the porch to see the last of the Stearnes on the shoulder. The sexton was a small man, seedy and solemn. We used to expend a vast amount of small wit apon him. He was known familiarly in those days as "Old Headstones," "Old Crossbones," "Old Dust and Dust." "Young gentleman," said he, in a separcural tone, much as if he were sum-
