GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

In our last issue we gave a synopsis of the Governor's Message, and to-day give the Message itself, omitting a few paragraphs on minor local topics of no interest to the general reader, in order to bring it within it compass to be read by our subscribers generally.

For once the Democratic leaders find ized him. some comfort in a message from Gov. • Mr. ~ Geary, and gloat over his thrust at the National Administration in the mat-...ver of the employment of U, S enforce the laws of Controops to ugress on election days. It is to ' . ne regretted that Gov.

Gearv " all confide in." He tells truly the secret message, have seen fit to travel outside of the imperishableness of the Bepubliof legitimate State topics, and unnecessarily assail the party which placed him in Executive position. The whole policy of Re-construction has been beset with difficulties, mainly by reason of the malignant Rebel sentiment which sought to thwart, and the persistent eforts made North and South to nullify, plain provisions of law and under cover of fraud and intimidation gain political power. Much of the legislation of Congress in this respect, would have been as impolitic, as it would have been unnecessary, in a normal condition of the Republic: but it was imperiously demanded by the necessities of the times. That a difference of opinion form" is again being agitated, and its should exist as to the propriety of much advocates are profuse in predictions of of this legislation, is natural; but why the good results that will follow its Gov. Geary should, at this late day, adoption. The "wild hunt for office," Expenses of the Government
