sensible practical men, like these, cannot get a wider circulation than they enerally do, while the doings of the of "Farmers' Club," get the widest ke notoriety possible. The following from the South Ackworth Club, on manure is so good that we give it a prominent place here:

"Mr. Joseph Hayward said it paid better to put material for manure into the hog pen than to buy special manures. He favored spreading on the surface and harrowing in . case the manure face and harrowing in . case the manure.

"John McKean said manure was the basis of successful farming; he could not afford to keep manure over; would use it in the spring; we should save everything in the shape of manure; store hogs may be made to pay their keeping in manures; he likes muck. would mix it with ashes; had used Bradley's phosphate, considered it the best in the market, thought it paid to use it; hen manure was worth $1 per "H. G. Perham approved the use of ashes, thought they were the cheapest manure that we could buy; thought we should pick up all the bones and put them into ashes, and keep moist-it would make first-rate phosphate." "John G. McKean suggested that every farmer wastes manuré enough to raise, at least, one acre of corn. It paid to use all the manuse that could be made and saved, and to buy some besides.— When a farmer wasted manure he wasted money. Many a farmer would stand and look on with indifference and see barn yard, washing the best of his manure away, when if he saw one cent wasted, he would turn the world upside down to save it. Farmers needed to pay more attention to such things. - D. MCGREARY.

IMPORTANT TO YOUNG HOUSKEEP-Ens.-In a recent work of Dio Lewis, he gives an account of one week in Saddles, Bridles, Collars which the sum total expended for his food was 544 cents. Two days out of seven he indulged in a brief stew, the meat for which each time cost exactly, two cents, and he says "there was realy enough for two of us!" As for the other days, the carte for a couple of them wil give an idea of all: Sunday breakfast, hulled Southern corn with a little only breakfast cost three cents.

SHYING HORSES.-A horseman whose horse is given to shying, ought never to permit himself to evince symptoms of nervousness nor punish the animal for exhibition of timidity.-Whenever a horse directs the points of his ears in a certain direction, as though distrustful or afraid, the reins should be pulled in another direction, thus diverting the attention of the animal from the object causing the perturbation.—

If on the other hand, force or harsh means are used to compel an acquaintance with the object feared, the horse

> Having for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption. I feel that I understand the store and stelerably bad case of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is for the patient to avoid taking coid, and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose in winter, is Florida, weil down in the best of all places on this continent for this purpose in winter, is Florida, weil down in the best of all places on this continent for this purpose in winter, is Florida, weil down in the best of all places on this continent for this purpose in winter, is Florida, weil down in the best of all places on this continent for this purpose in winter, is a point of the continent for the beating the patient to a point winter is as a system persons there whose times had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicine, were getting well.
> One hundred miles further down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even and the air dry and bracing. Mellouville and Enterprise are located there. I should give a decided preference to Medicine il seeins almost impossible to take cold there.—I the tables in Provida might be better, and patients complain at times but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite, and when this is the case they generally increase in flesh, and the lungs must heal.

less hable to take cold there than here, there is a less even temperature, and it is not necessary to say that where a consumptive person exposed nimself to frequent colds he is certain to die shortly. Therefore my advice is, go well down into the state out of the reach of prevailing east which and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat or cough, but for those whose lungs are diseased a more southern point is earnessly recommended. For fiften years prior to 189, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average ive hundred patients a week.

on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embraching every possible plane of hing disease, has enabled me to undergrand to taking cold. A prace, my caution in a capacity of the cold. A prace, my caution in a capacity to taking cold.

In Florida, nearly every foody is using Schenck's handrake Pills, for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well established fact that natives of Fiorida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one-third, at least, of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle states it does not preval so largely, still there are many thousands of cases there. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in repart to taking frod cold at they are about scarlet lever, small frod cold at they are about scarlet lever, small frod cold at they are about scarlet lever, small frod cold at they are about scarlet lever, small frod cold for another and another atil, until the lungs are diseased beyond at libope for cure.

His yadvice to persons whose lungs are affected ewen slightly is, to lay a stock of Schenck's Pulmonle Syrup. Schenck's Seawed Tonic and Schenck's Mandrake Pills and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines because I am thoroughly acquainted with they action. I know that where they are used in strict accordance with my directions they will do the work that is required. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a Liff E GIVING PHINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and invigorator of the System, carrying on all the poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a heaithy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gont, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Billious, Remittent and intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Aidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.
