Huntingdon, Wednesday, July 9, 1856.

The Broad Top Coal.

We find the following in the Philadelphia Public Ledger of Monday last:

The Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad and Coal Company have sent to market since the opening of their road 10,500 tons of coal, all from the Company's mines. The deliveries now average 300 tons per day, and several private collieries have just got into operation, which will in a short time double the quantity. The operators at the mines at the present time hold orders exceeding 30,000 tons, besides many orders from railroads and manufactories for trial lots, which are expected to bring hereafter large permanent orders. It is now used exclusively on the Columbia Railroad, their consumption alone for locomotives and machine shops amounting to near one hundred tons per day. This road bids fainto be one of the most profitable in our State.

Proceedings of Town Council. July 5th, 1856.—The house met at the usual place. Present-

Chief Burgess, Abraham McCoy. Assistant Burgesses, Thomas Fisher, John Simpson.

Town Council, David Black, Alexander Carmon, Benjamin Grafius, Jacob Snyder, and Henry Lower.

On motion a committee consisting of Messrs. Simpson, Black and Snyder, was appointed to examine and report the condition of the claim against the Catholic Church lots.

It was agreed that the High Constable be directed by the Chief Burgess, to notify the lot owners or occupiers on Hill and northern side of Washington streets, to make their respective pavements, on or before the first day existing ordinaces of the borough.

The chairman presented a bill of J. & W. | thing decent, at our reasonable prices. Saxton for $61,75 for brick, merchandize, and one year's ground-rent of Juniata Engine House; and bill of George Gwin for $66,77 for lumber and merchandize. The Secretary was directed to draft orders on the Treasurer for the amount of said bills,.

The House adjourned until Monday evening the 14th instant.

J. SIMPSON AFRICA, Secretary. Educational Meeting.

At a meeting of the citizens and friends of education in Shirleysburg and vicinity, held in the Academy Hall, on Friday evening, July 4, 1856, Capt. J. W. Galbraith was called to the chair, and Mr. Geo. Leas appointed Secretary.

The meeting was addressed by Rev. G. W. Shaiffer, Prof. J. B. Kidder, Rev. J. A. Kelly, Prof. II. J. Campbell, Messrs. John Lutz, Henry Brewster, Esq., and others. The speeches were all in beautiful harmony, advocating the advantages and value of the Academy and Seminary, not only to this place but to the community at large. Some of the speakers set forth the superior advantages of this place as a good location for Literary In-

A Word About Kansas. We are quite well aware that the subject of Kansas outrages is getting to be an old story, and that the majority of all right minded people are getting heartily sick and tired of of our political opponents been so prolific in producing monsters, as upon the subject of outrages in Kansas. Lying has been the order of the day. No sooner has one edition been allowed to cool down, than another batch has bgan cooked with additional seasoning, to suit the morbid appetite of the most depraved. We are of the opinion that this game of falsehood and iniquity, is nearly played out. The cheat has been effectually exposed, and the wire-workers will soon meet with universal execration and contempt. The St. Louis Republican of a late date. contains a very important statement in relation to three Bogus outrages, said to have been committed by Missourians, which, on the contrary, were perpetrated by Northern Hugues, Esq., one of the Clerks of the Congressional Committee, sent to Kansas to great pains to get at the facts of the casethat they were obtained from as reliable men as can be found in the State or Territoryand justice demands that the whole truth shall be told, that the people South, North, East, and West, may judge for themselves.

Mr. Hunges visited Lecompton, Lawrence, Leavenworth city, Westport, and other places, where the Congressianal Investigating Committee held their sessions, and was an eye-witness of many of the high-handed acts of atrocity committed by the emissaries of the Northern Abolitiontsts upon the citizens the laws of the Territory and the laws of the United States. He was present in the town of Lawrence when Sheriff Jones was shot by these infuriated fanatics, while he was in the performance of his official duty. The wound was a deep and dangerous one, and nobody expected that he would recover. Mr. Hugues saw in the streets the day he was shot, an excited rabble sent out by the Emigrant Aid Society, heaping curses upon Sheriff Jones and uttering the most diabolical threats against him. Some of their expressions he quotes as follows: "D—n him, why don't you kill him, Hunt-why don't you shoot him, Hunt-d-n such laws-d-n such officers —d—n such a country—d—n such a Presiassisting in executing them. The Hunt here mentioned was the prisoner arrested.

At the indignation meeting held at Lawrence to express the public disapproval of shooting Sheriff Jones, the famous, or rather infamous Charles Robinson made a speech, in which he said: "I had rather obey the laws emanating from hell, than submit to the laws of the Territory," and that they, the abolition emissaries, intended to "resist the laws to a bloody issue." Since that time outrage and wrong has been the order of the day.— The Abolitionists, who refuse to obey the laws of the Territory, have formed themselves into guerrilla bands, and have spread terror swept whole regions with fire and sword.

A party of these ferocious madmen in Franklin county, murdered a Mr. Wilkinson, old Mr. Doyle, two of his sons, two of the SHERMANS, all in the same neighborhood.— These cold-blooded murders were all committed in the most barbarous and revolting manner, some of they victims being horribly muof the night, and foully murdered in the presence of their wives and families.

Mr. Hugues saw three or four of Col. Bu-FORD's men whe were made prisoners while they were driving their cattle along the publie highway. These men informed him that the Abolitiouists had taken all their cattle, them, but afterwards changed their minds. They gritted their teeth, shook their fists in their faces while they were prisoners, and said, "You d — d Southerners, this is the way we will serve you all." An old man, by the name of Bourne, told Mr. Hughes that these Abolition bandits had taken all his cattle, oxen and horses, robbed him of every thing he had in the world, driven him and his family out of their home,

As there is but one step between the sublime and the ridiculous, so there is but a narrow point between philanthropy and crucky .-Philanthropy run mad, benevolence in a state of delirium and phrenzy, commits acts that are enough to make angels weep. And all this to make political capital for a sectional party who aim to destroy the Union and trample upon the Constitution.

The Ten-Cents-a-day Slander. The New York Tribune, the head and front of the Fremont faction nails the "ten cents" slander to the counter. Hear Greely: -

"The charge that Mr. Buchanan has advocated a reduction of laboring men's wages to ten cents per day has but a very partial support in fact. He certainly never made any such proposition directly, nor anything which he understood to have that effeet. What he did say was substantially this: The true way to encourage American manufactures is, to diminish their money cost by restricting our currency. Suppose a piece of cloth can be made in Germany for fifty dollars which cannot be made here for less than seventy-five, let us contract our currency fifty per cent., and we can make that same cloth here cheaper than it can be im-

LETTING OUT HIS DEMOCRATIC BLOOD .- Mr. Buchanan once said that if he believed he had a bit of democratic blood in his veins he would open them and let it out. That Mr. Buchanan made this declaration there is no [Rochester Democrat.

"There is no doubt" that the writer of the above deliberately penned it fully believing it to be calumnious and false. The Tribune of Saturday distinctly discredits the story; the Democrat of Monday reproduces it. Mr. Buchanan has said under his own hand and in the most positive manner: "This ridiculous story is without a shadow of foundation." "I now pronounce it to be absolutely false, no matter from what source it may have proceeded or shall proceed."

Thirty old citizens of Lancaster, many of whom say they have known Mr. Buchauan from boyhood, certify that the story is false, and that it was never heard of till thirteen years after the date assigned to it. No intelligent man believes it-no intelligent man can believe it. Rochester Union.
